

MONTREAL MINING EXCHANGE.

The advance in Virtue this morning is an indication of the ease with which stocks may advance on any good news. A few days ago thousands of Virtue could have been bought at 40 and under, to-day a demand for a few shares springs up, and the stock cannot be had even though 45 was bid for the stock. The fact of the special report on the Cumberland mine being favorable was the cause of the advance. We would recommend profit-taking at 50 or over, but would not be entirely without stock as the sentiment might easily cause another advance.

Golden Star is still in the list of discredited securities and no one will be induced to buy it even at the low price of 40.

Big Three is about bottom. It sold at 14½ but buyers are not plentiful and inquiries for the stock are freely made.

California is being marketed by holders who bought the shares low down. It is being developed judiciously and if it is really a mine shareholders will be made aware of the fact. Reports are such as to warrant buying.

Slocan-Sovereign sold at 27. It is steady.

Cariboo-Hydraulic sold to a small extent at 140.
