On Wednesday, the 20th inst., there over married at this church, by Rev. Father Minchan, Mr. David J. Doucett of Ecaverion and Miss Agnes O'Connell, youngest daughter of the late Mitchael O'Connell of Toronto. The bride was given away by her brother-law, Mr. William Bray of 266 Farley avenue, and looked charming indeed in a grown of white organdle over white actus, trimmed with mousseline de sole, with hat to match, and wore a bouquet of bridal roses.

DISTRIBUTION AT ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE.

The forty-eighth annual commencement of St. Michael's College was held on Wednesday, the 20th inst. There were present a large number of local and visiting clergy—chelty alumni of the College—besides very many of the relatives and friends of the students. The entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, addresses and recitations, was exceedingly good. In the absence of His Grace the Archibishop, the prizes were presented by Very Rov. Father Marijou and Rev. Father Teety. At the conclusion of the College of the C
