

MINING MEN AND AFFAIRS.

S. Keast has returned to Cariboo from New York.

W. H. Adams, mining engineer, of New York, was in Victoria last month.

J. W. Bryant is examining mining properties in southern Yukon for the Tye Copper Company.

Wm. Fleet Robertson, of Victoria, provincial mineralogist, was a recent visitor to Seattle, Wash.

Byron N. White, of Spokane, Washington, was in Sandon late in May, looking into Slocan Star affairs.

Herbert Carmichael, of Victoria, provincial assayer, has been on a holiday visit to England and Ireland.

Jules Labarthe, manager of the Trail smelter, was in Spokane, Washington, during the early part of May.

B. Brown, superintendent of the Diamond Vale Company's coal mine in the Nicola Valley, was in Nanaimo lately.

J. L. Parker has returned to Victoria from examining claims on Moresby Island of the Queen Charlotte group.

A. C. Garde, of Nelson, lately went up to Prince Rupert, which is in Skeena mining division, to open an office there.

Alexander Sharp, superintendent of the First Thought mine at Orient, Wash., is proceeding to Scotland on a vacation.

Alex. Faulds, superintendent of the Middlesboro' colliery, Nicola Valley, was a recent visitor to Vancouver and Victoria.

J. C. Gwillim, professor of mining at the School of Mines, Kingston, Ontario, was in British Columbia during the month.

Albert I. Goodell, late manager of the Le Roi Mining Company's smelter at Northport, Washington, is in Portland, Oregon.

D. W. Moore, of Spokane, Wash., for several years ore-buyer for the Trail smelter, is spending a few weeks in Victoria.

R. J. McPhee has recovered from his long illness and is again managing the Ottawa mine, in Slocan City mining division.

A. G. Larson, superintendent of the Le Roi mine at Rossland, has lately been visiting Seattle, Victoria, and other coast cities.

John L. Howard, of San Francisco, California, president of the Western Fuel Company, was in Nanaimo about the middle of May.

Henry White, now of Pasadena, California, one of the pioneers of mining in the Boundary District, is visiting the Skeena district.

J. A. L. Waddell, the well known bridge engineer, has taken charge of the construction of the new bridges over False Creek, Vancouver.

A. H. Kelly was in Victoria recently after having been up to Whitehorse copper camp, southern Yukon. Later he returned to Nelson.

Robt. Denzler, of Spokane, original owner of the Snowshoe, situated near Phoenix, Boundary District, went up to Prince Rupert lately.

Leslie Hill, manager of the Hastings (British Columbia) Exploration Syndicate, has returned to Nelson from a visit to London, England.

Alexander Smith, manager of the Surprise mine in the Slocan district, has returned to Sandon after having spent the winter in Ontario.

W. J. Elmendorf, of Spokane, Wash., is in Whitehorse copper camp, southern Yukon, where mining operations have been resumed with vigor.

Thomas Graham, superintendent of the coal mines of the Western Fuel Company at Nanaimo, Vancouver Island, was in San Francisco recently.

The painstaking English and Scotch architect looks for

QUALITY

Cost of maintenance is what he figures on.

Quality Counts

and it was QUALITY that won when

Malthoid Roofing

was chosen by the Alaska Yukon Pacific Exposition Officers as the Standard Roofing for the Exposition.

Sole Manufacturers

THE PARAFFINE PAINT Co.

408 Occidental Ave., Seattle.

R. ANGUS, 51 Wharf Street, Victoria.

H. DARLING, 28 Powell Street, Vancouver.

A. D. Wheeler, of Ainsworth, expected to resume work for the season on his Gallagher mineral claim, in Ainsworth camp, before the end of May.

H. Mortimer Lamb, of Montreal, Quebec, secretary of the Canadian Mining Institute, was in New York on business about the middle of last month.

Wm. P. White, for some time superintendent of the St. Eugene mine, at Moyie, East Kootenay, but now of Spokane, Wash., was in Cranbrook lately.

George Hughes, for years actively engaged in silver-lead and zinc mining in Slocan District, was seriously ill in Spokane, Washington, early in May.

M. R. Galusha, of Spokane, was in Rossland recently on business connected with the projected resumption of work at the Jumbo mine, in Rossland camp.

Chas. W. Goodale, of Butte, Mont., has been spending a vacation of about two months at Seattle and Tacoma, Wash.; Victoria, B. C., and neighbouring places.

Robert Irving has returned to Nelson from a trip to Chicago and is now giving close attention to the completion of the Canada Zinc Company's plant at Nelson.

Victor Howard, of Victoria, and W. Lindsay, of Trail, passed the examination for assayers for licence to practise in British Columbia, held recently in Victoria.

The Slocan Mining Review stated on April 30 that Bruce White, of Nelson, had been to New Denver "fixing up a deal on the Alpha group with N. F. McNaught."

Melbourne Bailey, manager of the Cariboo Consolidated (1904) Limited, has returned to Barkerville, Cariboo, from Tacoma, Wash., where he spent part of the winter.

Barclay Bonthron, of Vancouver, lately paid another visit to coal lands south of the Nicola district, owned by the Erl Syndicate, which he represents in British Columbia.

T. C. Dennis, of the Dominion Department of Mines, Ottawa, Ontario, is visiting the coal mines of the West, for the purpose of securing samples of coal for the department.