

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John iii. 16.

MESSRS. DEATH & CO.,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
SPIRITS, WINES AND MALT LIQUORS.

AKE this opportunity of informing their friends that they continue the Trade of making Drunkards, Bankrupts, Beggars, and Thieves, on the most reasonable terms and at the shortest notice.

The advertisers return their most sincere thanks to their numerous customers, and to all the tipling part of the community, for the extensive patronage they now receive; and they hope that the many proofs that are to be found of their success in the above line of business will secure to them the increased support of Drunkards and Little-drop-Drinkers, and forever silence the Teetotal Societies—those bitter enemies of their long established, legalized, and popular Trade.

Messrs. DEATH and Co. beg leave to assure the public that the article in which they deal is the best and most pleasant Poison in the world: and they will warrant a certain death in every case where the individual perseveres in the use of it: Messrs. Death and Co. are themselves under obligations to send more persons to the Workhouse, the Prison, the Gallows and the Graveyard than any other Firm, and this they will do with the greatest possible dispatch. To accomplish the desirable end it is only necessary for an individual to take a glass occasionally, till he feels that quantity insufficient to gratify the craving appetite which it will soon create; and when this Whiskey, Gin, Rum, Brandy, Wine, Ale or Porter appetite is formed, the person is then prepared to brave temporal and eternal misery for the sake of another glass.

In short, DEATH and Co. will spare no pains or expense to bring the Wives and Children of their customers to Misery, temporal and eternal, and drive to Delirium and Dissolution as many as possible. They are constantly receiving new supplies of the poisonous Liquor, which they sell by the glass, the bottle, the barrel or the hogshead, for the accommodation of their numerous customers, and for the dispatch of their increasing business.

Messrs DEATH and Co. have appointed a sufficient number of active Agents, who are stationed, at convenient distances, in splendid Palaces, Beershops, and Public Houses. These may be known by the filth, squalor, obscenity and misery of the customers who congregate around them, as well as by the odour of the Poisons continually polluting the air around.

Satisfactory References can be given to County Jails, Houses of Correction, Lunatic Asylums, Hospitals, Workhouses, Insolvent Debtors' Courts, the Courts of Bankruptcy, or to the Wives and Families of those whom DEATH and Co. have had the happiness to make Drunkards.

N.B.—Messrs. DEATH and Co. beg leave to caution all Tipplers and Drunkards against giving any heed to their wives, children, or friends, or to any advocates of the Teetotal Society, as those parties are enemies to their Soul-and-Body-destroying Business.

A private Entrance on Sundays during Divine Service.

Note the Address, Messrs. DEATH and Co., Fuddler's Court, Starvation Street, (near Murdering Lane), City.
