Noteworthy features of the April Canadian Magazine are Senator Power's article on the Prerogative of Dissolution; J. Macdonald Oxley, on the Canadian Pacific Railway; Prof. Fraser's sketch of Toronto University's Presidents; Easter poetry and fiction; Ian Maclaren's new story continued. The Canadian Magazine keeps abreast of its competitors at home and abroad, in literary matter, illustrations and general get up.

WHAT IT'S COMING TO.

Stationers may soon find envelopes become a much more profitable line than they are at present. The contents of a sealed letter having been photographed in 15 sec. by the Rontgen rays, envelopes lined with tinfoil (which defy the X rays) will be likely to repay introduction.—Stationery Trades Journal.
