Parish Notes.

On the eve of Ascension Day the rite of Confirmation was administered to nine young men of this parish at S. Stephen's Church. The following are the names: Franklin Millar, Arthur Percy Webb, David Allan Almas, Cyril Knowlton Nash, Allan Nisbitt McEvoy, Richard N. Notter, Walter Charles Warne, Arthur Keay, Edward Almas.

On Wednesday evening, May 2nd, instead of the usual service, an illustrated lecture of English Church history was given. The Rev. F. A. Allen comes from the diocese of Ottawa, where he spends most of his time delivering these instructive lectures.

On Monday evening, May 13th, Rev. Marmaduke Hare, lectured on the Transvaal and the war. As Dr. Hare has spent many years in South Africa and was for a time chaplain to H.M. forces there, it was no wonder the lecture proved most enlightening.

The Chancel Guild no longer hold their weekly meetings, but their Church duties still continue. Each Saturday flowers are brought to the Church and arranged for the Altar on Sunday, and those members of the congregation who have gardens might perhaps spare a few flowers for the Church at this blossoming season. The Guild were visited on May Day by the Mother Superior of S. John's. She came to inspect the embroidery for the new dossal and gave great encouragement to the workers.

On Sunday, 20th May, the services were specially joyous, in recognition of the relief of Mafeking. The doxology, national anthem and general thanksgiving were all said with "special intention."

The Synod of the Diocese meets on Tuesday, June 12th. Before our representatives can take their seats the parish has to pay to the Synod the sum of $97, our assessment for Synod expenses this year. Who will help? Donations for the lunch expenses and hospitality for country delegates are also to be remembered.
