OUR MAGAZINE.

THE CANADIAN INDIAN comes at present far short of what we had intended it to be, and of what we hope eventually it will be. The expense of getting up a Magazine so as to look respectable is considerable, and, having no capital to start with, it is impossible for us to incur much outlay until our subscription list is very considerably increased. A few gifts (or even loans) from friends of the cause, to aid in meeting the first necessary expenses, would be exceedingly acceptable just at this time, and, with a little money in hand, we should be able to use better and "more artistic" cuts, and make the Magazine a good deal more presentable. It is gratifying to us that, notwithstanding the defects of the Magazine, of which we are but too conscious, it has received on the whole a very kindly reception, as the following extracts from some few other publications, to which advance copies were sent, will show:—

"THE CANADIAN INDIAN appeals, without distinction of race or creed, to every friend of our aborigines. We would like to see the magazine at least doubled in size—so as to admit of longer signed articles from experts in Indian ethnology and philology,—but its enlargement depends of course on the generosity with which it is supported. The cause, both in its humane and scientific aspects, is a most worthy one, one that merits the support of every true Canadian."—Dominion Illustrated.
