CONVERSION FROM ROMANISM.
From a letter to the Secretary of the Irish Society in London. "July 24, 1814.

"My dear Sir,-I think the intelligence given in the enclosed will rather surprise you it is a fact that the priest here mentioned was especially sent by the Bishop (as testified by his own letter) some months since, 'to put down the conversions in the parish of Keelmelchedar, and the result has been the conversion of the man himself. He has, this day, published an address to his flock on leaving them. We are poor unfaithful creatures all of us; I have for some time past been bowing down under the fear that the repeated and violent assaults made by the priests in denunciations and printed letters, each more virulent and fierce than the other, must do evil to our Irish work; when lo, to reprove me, this matter is brought out, which God was working in his own mysterious way, thus making the wrath of man, indeed, to praise him. The effect is great on the Romanists here, and they have little resource but to borrow, for once, from the Scripture armoury, 'Thou art beside thyself, much learning doth make thee mad.'

(" Extract form Kerry Evening Post.) " Doings in Dingle. (" From a Correspondent.)

"On Sunday last, July 21, the Rev. Mr. Brasbie read his public recantation from the errors of Popery in Dingle Church. The fact of a priest abjuring Popery caused great excilement, and the magistrates having got full notice that the mob were determined to execute Lynch-law on the priest, on his road to the church, they took full precautions to preserve the peace. Before service commenced, the townspeople were astonished to see the Hon. Captain Plunkett, of H. M. steamer Stromboli, march into town from Ventry, with a force of about 100 men, including the marine artillery and marines, with drums and colours. This fine body of men, having joined the seamen and marines of H. M. brigantine the Lynx, under the command of Captain Nott, presented such an imposing appearance, that we need scarcely say, everything passed off very quietly. The coast guards from the surrounding stations were marched to church fully armed, and conveyed the Rev. Gentleman to the house of the Rev. Mr. Gaver, where he at present remains; Mr. Gillman, our active sub-inspector, had all his police ready to turn out at a moment's notice. Dingle for the last twenty years never presented such a force."

JEWISH MISSION.

A Teachable Inquirer .- J. M., twenty years of age, native of G-, had lived here in service five years last Easter. She had a great desire to be instructed by the Missionaries, as they call our school, but knew not where it was, nor how to find it out, and dared not ask any one, lest she should be suspected. Whilst she was thus revolving it over in her mind how to get information about us, her aunt sent her one day on an errand. Scarcely had she got into one of the lanes, before she perceived two Jewesses terribly quarrelling, the one upbraiding the other with sending her Vissionaries struck her ear, and she stopped and listened with the greatest eagerness, to learn where the children went to; and having heard it, she left, determining to go that very afternoon to the school. She gave me much pleasure, and I trust a good work has begun in her, and that she will finally be numbered amongst the fold of Christ. At first her relatives had no idea that she received instruction from the Missionaries, and when they found it out, they were very angry; but she insisted that they instructed her better than their teachers and thus they suffered it. Her mother was in town this week, and exhorted her never to go to the Missionaries without God in her heart, and then she would be preserved,-Mr Bellson's reports from Posen.

Unteuchable Inquirers.—It was but the day before yesterday that we, after about three hours ' hard fighting, drubbed the Talmudical nonsense out of the rabbi's right hand man, the most learned Jew here in Cracow; although I fear it was all we did do with him. This man is Rabbi Abraham, the brother of the Chasid, who said he would come with a knife concealed under his cloak and murder us both if we persisted in haptising the third brother, &c. They both did come, and whether he had his knife or not, I will not pretend to say. All I will say at present is, Mr. Behrens called to me to come and help him, for he had got the two brothers in his room. I had heard a great noise, so I went in; and such was the noise and confusion that I can only state, that we had the satisfaction of preaching Christ crucified,-telling him that, whether he had got his knife or not, he must hear it, for we were quite as willing, through grace, to die for our faith as he was. He turned pale, he turned red, he looked furious, he looked frantic, he pulled his hair, he beat his head, he got up, he walked about, he sat down, he could not he would not hear it. He pulled me down upon the sofa by his side, he seized my hand and pulled me up again, and very often we were staring each other hard in the face, with our hands upon each other's shoulders, almost nose to nose, trying who could zeal for the preservation and delivery of the make himself best heard; and what was two British officers, Col. Stoddart and Capt. the end of it? why they left us quietly, Conolly, placed himself in the power of the saying, they would call again. The Chasid treacherous chief of Bokhara, is now exhas not done so, nor do I believe he will.-Mr. Hiscock's letter from Cracow.

To the Editor of the Berean.

Sir,—I perceive it is stated in the of this City that the Rev. Fathers Guigues, and Honorat, of the Congregation of the Oblats, recently visited Quebec on a mission connected with the extension of their Church in the settlements bordering upon the Saguenay; and that, in consequence, it has been determined that four priests of that congregation shall this fall be settled at Grand Bay.

Can any of your readers inform me whether the above Rev. Fathers are subjects of Her Majesty; what the Congregation of the Oblats is; and whether those belonging to it are subjects of any and what foreign state ;also where the seat of the authority is to which they are ecclesiastically amenable; whence they derive their support; what "their Church" is; and whether the exercise of their ministry in this country is according to Law?

Quebec 10th Septr. 1814.

[We may extend out Correspondent's last question so as to apply to the Jesuits, men-tioned in an article in another column, taken from the Mélanges Religieux.—ED.]

To the Editor of the Berean.

Sin,-I have just seen the Revd. Egerton Ryerson's first rejoinder to the attacks of a political opponent who has adopted the signature of "Legion for we are many," and have learned from it that the gentleman who has chosen to designate himself after this manner "wrote editorials strong and eloquent in the Church in 1839"—I may therefore fairly presume that he is one not unobservant of the decencies of a religious profession. As for Mr. Ryerson himself, he is well known as an eminent minister among the Canadian Methodists. With the merits of the question in dispute I do not wish to meddle; but I would seriously advise the disputants, as they value their Christian character, to be more guarded in the use of Scripture language.

Those who read the Word of God with reverence, consider the adoption of such a signature as that of " Legion for we are many" to he a subject for grave animadversion, nor can they fail to regret that a Christian Minister should have commenced his reply by declaring that his antagonist is "unworthy to unloose the shoe latchets" of-Mr. Viger and Mr. Parke. I do not make these remarks in a spirit of fault-finding, but in the sincere and carnest hope that they may be useful.

I remain your constant reader, PHILO-BEREAN.

Form of PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING OR the occasion of Her Majesty's happy delivery in child-birth, to be used after the General Thanksgiving at morning and evening

"O Merciful Lord and heavenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankind is increased we most humbly offer unto Thee our hearty thanks for Thy great goodness vouchsafed to Thy people, in delivering Thy servant our Sovereign Lady the Queen from the perils of childbirth, and giving her the blessing of a son. Continue, we beseech thee. Thy fatherly care over her; support and comfort her in the hours of weakness, and day by day renew her strength. - Preserve the infant. Prince from whatever is hurtful either to body or soul and endue him, as he advances in years, with true wisdom and every Christian virtue. Regard with thine especial favour our Queen and her Royal Consort, that they may long live together in the enjoyment of all earthly happiness, and may finally be made partakers of everlasting glory. Implant in the hearts of Thy people a deep sense of Thy manifold mercies, and give us grace to show forth our thankfulness by dutiful affection to our Sovereign, by brotherly love one towards another, and by constant obedience to Thy commandments; so that, passing through this life in Thy faith and fear, we may in the life to come be received into Thy heavenly kingdom, through the merits and mediation of Thy Blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Political and Local Intelligence,

PRINCE WILLIAM OF PRUSSIA, Whose arrival in England was reported by the last English mail, is second son to the late King of Prussia, consequently brother to the reigning monarch, who is without children, so that Prince William is heir presumptive of the crown. He is in his forty eighth year, having been born on the 22nd of March, 1797. He intends to make but a short sojourn in the metropolis, but to pay a visit of some weeks to Scotland.

ITALIAN POLITICS .- The landing in Calabria anticipated, as the renders of the Berean were informed on the 8th of August, has proved disastrous to the parties concerned. Their attempt at raising the inhabitants proved unsuccessful, themselves were taken. and the King of Naples has visited their offence with rigour. Seventeen individuals were condemned to death, and upon nine of them this sentence was executed on the 28th of July. Among them are two sons of the Austrian Admiral Bandeira, both of them

Lieutenants in the Austrian naval service. DR. Wolff.-It is distressing to learn that this enterprising traveller who, impelled by posed to imminent danger; the chief having ordered his detention without any reason more probable than that of preventing his return to expose in Europe what he has become privy to of the despot's guilt and villainy. THE GAMBIER ISLES .- The group called the Gambier isles, of which France has, it is said, lately taken possession, is situated to the south-east of the Society Islands, being close to the tropic of Capricorn, in 234 degrees of south latitude. The four principal isles are Mangateva, Taravai, Akena, and Akamourou. The first, which is the largest, forms the residence of the King and his chieftains. These isles are but thinly populated. Mangareva and Taravai have not, together, more than from 1,900 to 2,000 inhabitants.

The Official Gazette of the 7th instant, contains a proclamation proroguing the Provincial Parliament from the 12th instant to the 22nd October, without the usual notice " for the despatch of business."

The Melanges Religieux states that on the 16th August, two nuns received the veil from at l'Asile de la Providence, and two at the monastery of Bon Pasteur. Three brethren have arrived from Europe to join the com-munity of the Oblats. The Rev. Father Martin is named superior of the establishment of the Jesuits in this Diocese.

The Rev. Messire Blanchet has been appointed R. Catholic Bishop of the Oregon Territory, with the title and dignity of Bishop of Philadelphia. Gazette. Montreal, Aug. 29th.-The necessary alterations of the interior of St. Ann's Market. to accommodate the two branches of the Legislature, are now completed, as far at least as the Board of Works is concerned, and the workmen now employed about the building are occupied only in putting up the furniture painting, &c., of the respective offices and chambers. The whole will, in all probability, be completed in a few weeks, with the exception of the carpeting and curtaining of the two principal chambers, which are extensive .- Gazette.

THE TRIAL OF THE FIRE ENGINE made by Mr. LeMoine of this city, against that of the Union Company of Montreal (imported from the United States) took place yesterday afternoon, on the square fronting the R. C Cathedral, and, judging from the number of citizens present, excited a good deal of interest. The judges declared in favour of the Engine of Mr. LeMoine which threw the stream against the spire of the church to the height of about 150 feet.

An engine made by Mr. J. McKenzie of this city, and another made in London and imported by the Corporation for the use of one of the Fire Companies here also exhibited their power: the efficiency of the latter gave great satisfaction.

The Montreal Journals mention the arrival there of His Excellency Sir W. Colebrooke, Governor of New Brunswick, on his return from Canada West to his Government.

The Belfast Commercial Chronicle, mentions that Captain Lowther, the Master of the Brig Hannah, which was abandoned by the crew in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, had arrived in safety at that port in the Catharine, Baird, which vessel had taken him off the wreck.

The ship Lady Millon, Sinnott, which left Quebec on the 7th July last, for Liverpool, returned to port again on Friday last; thus making the passage home and out again in the astonishingly short space of two months,probably the shortest run on record.

The barge Chippewa, with wheat to Macpherson, Crane & Co., Montreal, struck in the rapids some days ago, and has since drifted down to the west side of the Island of St. Helens. Her cargo is reported to be nearly a complete loss.

MATTHEW HAMMOND, No. 53, St. John Street. Quebec, 10th Septr. 1844.

THE BRITISH AMERICAN LAND COM-I PANY would carnestly call the attention of he inhabitants in the Eastern Townships, and of Lower Canada generally, to the very favourable terms upon which excellent land in all sections of this beautiful part of the Province can now be obtained.

The Company offer for sale, without reserve the whole of their LANDS, with undoubted titles, on a CREDIT of FOURTEEN YEARS, requiring only the interest annually for the first ten years, and WITHOUT ANY PAYMENT A'T ENTRY, at prices varying from Ten Shillings per Acre, according to situation.

The Company would particularly point out the advantage which is thus offered to the young and rising portion of the community, who can thus establish themselves in the neighbourhood of their relations and friends, instead of leaving all their old associations, to seek an uncertain livelihood in the distant regions of the West.

The Company are now establishing a new set-tlement at Metcalfe, in the Township of Roxton, under the local superintendence of Alexander Rea, Esquire, where lands can be had within fifty miles of Montreal, and within thirty miles of Steamboat navigation to that City, and to Quebec. as well as to Lake Champlain and New York. This settlement, with its adjacent lands amounting to about 100,000 acres, offers a peculiarly favourable opening to the dense population of the French Seigniories from Sorel to the Province Line; it is accessible by good roads within seven miles of Metcalfe, and a road is now being con-structed to unite with them, which will thus afford an easy communication when completed, from the River St. Francis to Montreal, a distance of about 75 miles.

In every other section of the Eastern Town ships, the Company have for sale, EXCELLENT LANDS, easily accessible, and convenient for the occupation of Emigrants and others.

Applications may be addressed to A. T. GALT. Esq., the Commissioner of the Company at Sherbrooke, and to the following Agents:—
