YET WE MUST DIE.

Though life we spend in sunny bowers,
Mid laughing meads and scented flowers,
And bliss attends our tranquil hours,
Yet we must die,

Though Love's bright torch may gladly blaze;
Though teem with joy our happy days;
Though beauty's smile delight our gaze,
Yet we must die.

Though oft by fancy borne away,
We bask in regions bright and gay,
Where pleasure grows with constant ray,
Yet we must die.

Though circled with the pomp of state,
Our word be law, our whisper fate,
Our halls must soon be desolate,
Yet we must die.

For we must part with love's bright ray,
Our gayest dreams must flit away,
Wealth, beauty, pleasure all decay,
And we must die.

HALIFAX PUBLIC LIBRARY, AND LITERARY ROOM.

THE SUBSCRIBER begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he has undertaken the management of the above establishment, and trusts by careful and unremitting attention, to render it worthy of a liberal share of public patronage.

The Library comprises a selection of nearly 2,000 volumes; among which are to be found some of the most approved standard works, recent publications, and periodical literature.

The Reading Room now contains a variety of European, American, and Colonial papers; and the proprietor is making arrangements to obtain the ablest English papers by the latest arrivals.

The terms are extremely moderate, viz. —for the LIBRARY and READING ROOM, 20s. per annum; and for either separately, 12s. 6d. per annum; or for a shorter period in proportion.

Particulars can be obtained, on application at the Library, (near the Bank of British North America,) which the public are respectfully invited to visit and inspect for themselves.

In appealing to the public of Halifax, in behalf of this undertaking, the subscriber begs to state his determination to add to his Library, the principal popular works as they appear; and otherwise to increase the variety in the Reading and News department to the fullest extent that the amount of subscriptions will warrant. He also adds the assurance, that while he presumes to hope for a liberal support, no exertion on his part shall be wanting to deserve it.

While Halifax is rapidly advancing in prosperity and enterprise—while a taste for Literature is diffusing itself among all classes—and when an extensive system of Steam Navigation is about to be established, which will connect Halifax, by a constant and rapid communication, with the principal ports of the Old and New World—it is hoped that a comfortable Reading Room, connected with a carefully assorted Library, and enriched with the latest intelligence from all quarters, will not be deemed unworthy of support by the members of an enlightened commercial community.
