

ARTICLE 3

Persons to Whom the Convention Applies

This Convention shall apply to:

- (a) for Canada, any person who is or who has been subject to the legislation of Canada, and to the dependants and survivors of such a person;
- (b) for the Kingdom of Morocco, any salaried person or a person considered as such who is or who has been subject to the legislation of Morocco and to the beneficiaries of such a person.

Equality of Treatment

For the application of the legislation of a Party, any person described in Article 3 shall be subject to the obligations of the legislation of the other Party and shall be eligible for the benefits of that legislation under the same conditions as citizens or nationals of the latter Party.

Export of Benefits

1. Unless otherwise provided in this Convention, benefits payable under the legislation of a Party to any person described in Article 3, including benefits acquired by virtue of this Convention, shall not be subject to any reduction, modification, suspension, cancellation or confiscation by reason only of the fact that the person resides in the territory of the other Party, and these benefits shall be paid in the territory of the other Party.

2. Benefits payable under this Convention to a person who is or who has been subject to the legislation of both Parties, or to the dependants or survivors of such a person, shall be paid in the territory of a third State.
