

- . A select committee of 10 heads of government, including Prime Minister Mulroney, is examining ways to enhance the Commonwealth's role in the 1990s and beyond and will report to the next Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting.

"Voluntary, non-governmental organizations are the driving force behind today's Commonwealth. They will meet for the first time to discuss sustainable development before Commonwealth Heads of Government get together in Harare this fall," said Mr. Clark.
