

	PAGE
Evils thereof. Instance illustrating them	107
Evidences of the interest felt in England in favour of India	109
Terry's Thanksgiving Sermon before the East India Company.	110
Reynolds's Sermon before the same	112
Evelyn's notice of it. THE LEVANT COMPANY	115
Pocock, the Orientalist, their Chaplain, 1629	117
Appointed Laudian Professor of Arabic, 1636. Visits Constantinople	119
Returns to England, 1640-1	120
His duties	121
His trials	122
The benefit of his and kindred labours	125
The Polyglot Bible	126
Pocock's unwearied and useful labours	128
Notice of Isaac Basire	130
Concluding reflections	134

CHAPTER XIII.

THE NEW ENGLAND COLONIES, FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE REIGN OF CHARLES I. TO THE END OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

A. D. 1625—1660-1.

The NEW ENGLAND Council grants Patents to Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire, in 1627-9, and surrenders its Charter to the Crown in 1635	137
These Patents set at nought by the parties receiving them	139
New Hampshire annexed to Massachusetts in 1641	141
Maine granted to Sir F. Gorges by Charles in 1639	143
Remarks thereon	144
Maine annexed to Massachusetts in 1651	147
Summary of the subsequent history of New Hampshire and Maine	148
Progress of the Colony of Massachusetts	152
Character of the Colonists	153
The unjust severity of their laws	158