

1834, by HARPER
District of New-

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

Washington—Mount Vernon 9

CHAPTER II.

Washington—Advantages of Small Capitals—Salutary Hints to Ambition—Foreigner disappointed—More Reflections—Vines
—Railroad. 17

CHAPTER III.

Baltimore—Route to Philadelphia—Railroads 23

CHAPTER IV.

Philadelphia 28

CHAPTER V.

New-York—Activity of Citizens—Merchants—Societies—Steamboats 31

CHAPTER VI.

The Sea-shore—Long Branch—Bathing—Scenery—Shipwrecks
—Forms of Danger and Modes of Escape 37

CHAPTER VII.

New-York—Books—The Apparatus of Literature—Conversations with Booksellers on Public Taste, &c.—A Friend returned from a Tour to Europe—Foreign Feelings and Ignorance respecting America—Varying Aspects of the Streets of the Metropolis—Impressions from observing them 46

CHAPTER VIII.

New-York continued—Foreign Residents and Visitors—Foreign Books 55