

If any proprietor or subscriber shall lend a Library Book, or receive one from any other person, than the Librarian, he shall forfeit and be deprived the use of the Library, until the forfeit is paid.

Any Book torn or injured in the hands of a proprietor or subscriber, becomes his, and must be paid for double the value with that of the set to which it belongs; and it is incumbent on every person to take care that the Book is in good order before he takes it out, as he will be deprived of the use of the library until this rule is complied with—and any subscriber finding a Book imperfect, is requested to give the Librarian immediate notice.

Books lost to be paid for at the discretion of the Directors.

The Librarian shall keep an exact Catalogue of the Books, to be open at all times to the subscribers, but it shall not be taken out of the library.—Subscribers will be furnished with printed catalogues, upon application to the Librarian, upon paying for the same.
