BERLIN ADMITS FLOODS FORGED GERMANS BACK

All Operations in Nieuport Region Have Been Given Up.

HEAVY LOSSES AT ROYE

Several Hundred Missing After Village Fight—Some Gains Claimed.

(GERMAN OFFICIAL)

Canadian Press Despatch. AMSTERDAM, via London, Nov. 3, 7.45 p.m.—The following official despatch issued in Berlin has been received here:

"A telegram from general headquarters dated Nov. 3, at noon, states that operations in this part of the country.

"The water in places is as high as a full grown man. Our troops have evacuated the inundated districts without loss of men, horses or guns.

"Our attacks on Ypres are progressing. More than 2000 men, mostly English, have been captured and also several machine guns.

"West of Roze severe fighting has taken place with great losses on both sides, but the situation is unchanged. In the village fight we lost several hundred men and two cannon.

"On the night of the 2nd and 3rd inst. our troops have occupied several strong positions beyond the canal in the Solennes area. The French have posted a heavy battery and made the steeple an observation post.

"Between Verdun and Toul, several French attacks have been repulsed. Troops of French soldiers were German herded in a heavy battery near the Vosges near Marbach; a French attack was repulsed and our troops began a counter attack.

"In the east the operations are still in a state of evolution and there has been no fighting.

"The Russian first Siberian army corps on November 1 used civilians as breastworks while destroying a bridge.

"Big Business Continues. The Amette Kellermann 'Neptune's Daughters' photo-play, running for the second week at the Princess Theatre, continues to draw big business.

MINES SUNK TRAWLER

A despatch from 'Central News' from Lowestoft says: 'Considerable commotion was caused at Lowestoft this morning by a report of a naval battle a few miles north of the town which was witnessed by several residents from the north. The vessel was a German submarine, returning to Lowestoft, some of which ran in dangerous proximity to the fighting but escaped unharmed, with one exception. The trawler Prater was sunk by a mine. Five of her crew have been landed at Lowestoft and the others at Yarmouth.'

HALCYON DAMAGED

"The enemy attacked the Halcyon, the chief fishery protection cruiser at sea. One seaman is reported to have been badly injured and taken to a hospital. The vessel itself had her wireless and her bridge damaged and her funnel pierced. She has returned to Lowestoft.

PEACE IS DETERMINED TO CRUSH GERMANY

Peace Only Possible When Heart of Enemy's Soil is Reached.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Nov. 3, 2.35 p.m.—A despatch from Moscow to Reuters' Telegram Co. says that Emperor Nicholas, in telegraphing his greetings to the Merchants' Association, on the occasion of the opening of its session, said: 'Peace only is possible when Russia reaches the heart of German soil. This is the unanimous opinion of all Muscovites. Any apprehension of peace being concluded before the enemy is completely crushed is unfounded.'
