Massey Hall Nearly Filled and Audience Very Appreciative.

3'Another triumph was scored by the Adanac Quartet at the Good Friday concert at Massey Hall. The excellence of the singing was shown to the utmost on their second appearance when they sang "Jessie, the Flower o' Dumblane." The harmony was splendid and for an encore they gave "Poor Little Lamb," a pretty plantation song. The audience, however, was tion song. The audience, however, was not yet satisfied and again the quartet

Miss Mary Bruce-Brown sang mass Mary Bruce-Brown sang in a most charming voice open-ing with "Sound the Pibroch," and for an encore "Belgium Forever," a bright stirring patriotic song-in Pietro Mascagni's Ave Maria Miss Bruce-Brown was at her best both her high and low notes being clear and good. In this number she was accompanied on the violin by Miss Nellie McGhie. In Tost's

clearly showed signs of the strain of ther former selections and was not so Sood, lacking temperament to so good, lacking temperament to a marked degree. For an encore to this number Miss Bruce-Brown sang by request "Canada and Motherland," a request "Canada and Motherland, by splendid patriotic song, written by by John Adamson. In this song she was quite up to the standard of her earlier numbers, singing with a feeling and in beautiful voice. Miss Kathleen English's readings were very well received, her first num-ber, "Reggie" being of a humorous nature, drawing many laughs from the audience. As an encore she gave Ten Little German Sausages." In the second part of the program Miss English recited "The Relief of Lucknow" and "The Empire Flag," with Miss Nellie McGhie rendered several pretty selections on the violin, including "Waverley," "Echoes From Arshire" and "My Ain Kind Dearie." Dr. Harvey Robb accompanied the theory on the violence of the companies o singers on the piane, and as a selec-tion gave Liszt's Rhapsody No. 2.

of Frederikstar.

The latter, which was bound for Hull with a cargo of seasoned wood, was stopped by the German submarine U-20 at midday Wednesday, set on fire and sunk after the crew were ordered aboard the Unita. Both ships were northwest of Dogger Bank, latitude 56 degrees 13 minutes N., longitude 4 degrees 25 minutes east when held up by the submarine.

Captain's Story.
Captain Simensen of the Nor says:
"As soon as I sighted the submarine she signaled me to stop. I was ordered aboard the submarine with the ship's papers. I went and was told the cargo was contraband, that the ship would be destroyed and that I Plendid patriotic song, written by and the crew must go in boats to the steamer Unita, which had been ordered to stand by. Her cargo had already been examined and declared all right. but the captain had been told that in-stead of going to Hull, where he was bound, he must go to Rotterdam and land me and the crew.

"The commander of the submarine took possession of one of my boats, in which he sent two of his crew on bard the Nor. which he told me was to be destroyed. The ship was still afloat when I left in the Unita butl am since informed she was set on fire by tre Germans, who could not well have sunk her by shot owing to the nature of the cargo."

Given Cortificate. Before Simensen left the submarine the commander gave him a document in the following terms: "I have this day, March 31, ordered the captain and crew of the Norwegian sailing ship Nor to leave their vessel and go on board the steamer Unita and go to Rotterdam. The Nor is to be de-stroyed on account of contraband under articles 24, 17, 33 and 34 C and 39, 40 and 49 D. (Signed) Stulw. commander lieutenant, submarine U-20,"

Britain's Drink Bill More Than Double Cost of Army and Navy

The United Kingdom's liquor bill for 1913 was higher than in 1912, and the total for 1914 was above 1913, according to unofficial figures. The totals in 1913

Mr. Hill believes that foreign credits established here will mount to much higher figures than those already reached. "We can't kill our best customers," he explained, "and if they cannot pay us with gold, why, we shall have to give them credit. That is a matter for our bankers, and they may be expected to prepare adequately for what financing is needed.

"There is going to be enough grain to go around this year. A good big acreage of wheat will be planted in this country. It may be estimated that the acreage planted in Germany, Austria and France will be between 40 and 45 per cent. under the average. END BY OCTOBER

"The very fact that the war is over will have the effect of causing some settling back of wheat prices. Also, the European laborer, with factories destroyed and many industries ruined, will turn back to mother earth for his living. That will be an important factor in increasing the world's crop supply and driving prices down.

There is one all important fact to remember. The agricultural crops of this country have a yearly value of $10,000,000,000, or more than the gold mines of the world produce in twenty-five years.
