NEW YORK STOCKS QUICKLY RECOVER

Range and Amount of Speculation Astonishes Wall Street.
EASY MONEY HELPS
Railway Issues Advance Together With War Specialties.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The inference generally drawn from today's remarkable recovery of prices is that the public, always an unknown quantity in Wall street, is participating in the speculative mania to an extent probably unprecedented in the annals of the stock exchange.

Easy money, it is realized, constitutes an important element in the situation, despite the closer scrutiny of loans by financial institutions and the admonitions from those quarters against margin operations.

War issues recovered. Recoveries of 5 to 10 points from yesterday's final quotations and of 10 to 15 from the minimum of that session were registered by many of the securities.

INCREASED DEMAND FOR DOMESTIC STOCKS
Montreal Speculators Cause a Sharp Uprush Move in Cement Smelters Also Strong.

There was an increased demand for domestic stocks on the Toronto Exchange yesterday, but prices in two stocks the change in prices was not material.
