

fellowship that shall end the reign of the brute for ever and realise Tennyson's prevision of a time when disputes between men were no longer settled as they are between animals, but

The battle-flags were furled
In the Parliament of Man, the Federation of the world.

THE END