

the gospel ; he will see that as much as the Saviour of the Popes is a nullity, a Saviour without charity, without any care for sinners, so much the more the Virgin is exalted by her power, her compassion and her devotedness to the salvation of sinners ; he will see, in short, that Jesus Christ, is insulted, unrecognized and dethroned, in the Church of Rome, for the benefit of the Virgin. . And by the grace of God, our brethren of the Church of Rome will understand that this church is as much the enemy of the Holy Virgin as of Jesus.

But it would be necessary to write many volumes, if we would republish all the blasphemies, offered by the Church of Rome, in her worship of the saints, and especially in the honours which she renders the Holy Virgin.

We think we have written enough, with the grace of God, to open the eyes of our brethren of the Roman church, to the deplorable errors, which form the principal basis of the public worship in their Church.

May the Lord, in his infinite goodness and mercy, give to each of our dear brethren and friends, who are yet under the yoke of Roman infidelity, the same grace which he has given us, and lead them to the feet of Jesus Christ as their only hope—their only salvation—and their only Saviour.
