centre of interest for a time at least was the flying rehearsal staged by Col. Barker and two other aviators. They all flew German Fokkers and there was little in the known tricks of the air that the three daring aviators did not do during the afternoon. They looped, side-slipped, spiraled, rode in all battle formations and generally gave the spectators a wonderful thrill. The same program will be repeated each day during the Exhibition.

Col. Bishop is at present on his way back from England but on his return will join Col. Barker in daily flights. There will be at least three machines in the air every day, all enemy aircraft.

The Wonderful Medicine, Made From Fruit Juices and Valuable Tonics.

I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives." This medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well.

I read about "Fruit-a-tives," and tried them. After taking a few boxes I am now entirely well. You have my permission to publish this letter, as I hope it will persuade other sufferers from dyspepsia to take "Fruit-a-tives" and get well.

disabled soldiers. No tragedy drama on the street corners for them.

Happy boys who have limped back to Canada may be seen at the Exhibition in the process building (just next north of Exhibition headquarters building).

The badly wounded in France or Belgium they are showing themselves to be real men still, in peace. They work with real tools and machinery, and are fitting out to learn a living at a new trade—the old one no longer of use.

The ladies will be simply charmed with the wonderful display of soldier work from the hospitals, the largest collection yet, and in quality not surpassed. Sales are held daily at noon.

Each pretty article added in some soldier's cure, and the money it brings goes back to him—no doubt to act as a tonic too.

Watch for the sign: "Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment."

WARD FOUR HEARS NESBITT TROUCE TORY MINISTRY

About Time to Get Out and Hustle, Says the Alderman.

The meeting held by Ward Four Conservative Association at the Albion Hall, Spadina avenue, last night could hardly be termed a party for girls. What the meeting lacked in numbers—there were not more than 50 people present—it made up in energy, for the verbal attacks made on the party leaders and the lack of enterprise in the party generally were not smoothed over by words, but went direct to the point in so measured language.

Almost immediately on T. Leister, the president of the association, taking the chair the fireworks commenced. James Hazak, a prominent Conservative in the district, rose and wanted to know what Mr. Leister meant by going to Scarborough Beach Park on Wednesday and saying that ward four were behind the nomination of Colonel Kelly Evans for the candidature in Northeast Toronto. He wanted to know who gave him authority to make such a statement.

Mr. Leister said he had not pledged Ward Four Association, but had said that he felt sure the ward would be behind the nomination of Kelly Evans.

This explanation was not to Mr. Hazak's liking, and he said he wanted a more satisfactory answer before he as a member of Ward Four Association, would pledge himself to support a "tin pot soldier."

In some heat Colonel Kelly Evans rose and demanded to be heard. He rose, however, shouted down and told his turn to speak would come in due time. After a few minutes' intermission he was handed out by the door.

Without any reference to the late words war commenced a spirited attack on the members of the Hearst cabinet. He said he was speaking as a good Tory to Tory ministers, and it was time some of these said ministers, instead of going out and playing golf in white trousers and sending mere boys to address party meetings, should be seen in the streets.

It was time some of them got off their seats and started something so that the prestige of the party might be saved. There were one or two good ministers at Queen's Park, but help the party, along the road, instead of their getting out and doing something for the party.

Why don't they keep the party alive? Colonel Kelly Evans, who met with a fair reception, was the next speaker. He hotly denied the charge of being a "tin pot soldier" and insisted that he traced his every action during the war for the soldiers' benefit and work for the soldiers' benefit.

He said he had helped to remove a lot of the misunderstanding that was created at the time of the election, and that many of the party's losses, also, they were grossly libelled. He said he was not a Tory, but a man who came home to roost before they were proved untrue to the public, if some of them did not get out in the constituencies and do some spadework.

The party was not so secure today as in the time of Whitney. Out of doors they must all put on a cocoon air, but he told the meeting so that the party had serious times ahead. The election would be no child's play and no walk-over for the Tory party.

The farmers were choosing their own candidates and conditions were so altering that no man could read them correctly. He hoped to visit Northeast Toronto if he was selected, and he asked the meeting to give him a fair chance to meet the voters at a big meeting, (Cheers).

On the conclusion of the speaker's speech, James Hazak, who had made remarks about tin pot soldier and said that when he was not in the ward he was in the Tory party, was in favor of the Tories.

J. M. Skelton and Mr. Lodge, secretary of the West York Conservative Association, also addressed the meeting.

BADGES OPTIONAL.

At a conference between General Gunn and Secretary Geo. A. Gustaf, of West Toronto G. W. V. A., a misunderstanding on the part of what war badges may be worn by the Prince's guard of honor, was cleared up. The general explained that regulation service dress did not include either war service badges or G. W. V. A. buttons. At the same time the general wished to be understood that no positive order against the wearing of these badges have been issued. It is now left for each man to decide whether he will wear his badges or not.

ON ONE CONDITION.

Urged by a number of members to reconsider his resignation, B. P. Brockbank, secretary of the central branch, G. W. V. A., is unwillingly understood to be willing to do so under one condition. He insists that a greater spirit of co-operation in committee work be evoked, thus relieving the branch office of a large amount of unnecessary work.

VETERANS EAST TORONTO TO SEEK CHARTER

Branch Strong Enough to Stand Alone—Housing Commission Condemned.

At a well attended meeting of the East Toronto branch G. W. V. A. held in Snell's Hall, Main street, last night, Geo. D'Arcy, president, in the chair, it was unanimously decided to apply to the Dominion executive for a charter owing to the rapid growth of the branch and its vitality. It is felt by the members that the East Toronto organization can stand upon its own feet. A committee composed of five members was appointed to look after and provide the members and soldiers' widows in the district with coal during the coming winter. The following were appointed: Comrades J. Harris, W. Hartley, Dobson, Johnson and Stamp.

An amusement committee was also appointed as follows: Comrades Parnell, Baker, Hall, Taylor, Kimmner, Hulise and Paddfield.

D. Moncur of the Riverdale branch, the speaker of the evening, took length on many topics of interest to the members. He asserted that the paid officials of the organization should look tenaciously after the widows and orphans and demand that they get sufficient sustenance. "The government," declared the speaker, "has not yet taken the responsibility of the orphans and this should be insisted upon." The King of England said recently that poverty in England must be banished. "If the King were in Toronto he would certainly get after Dr. Noble."

Soldiers Not Trusted.

Proceeding the speaker paid a tribute to President R. J. Roberts of the Riverdale branch for his firm stand with regard to the club houses for the veterans. He criticized the speaker of the committee connected with this matter, consisting of nine civilians and only five veterans. "We are not to be taken in by these people for whom we went overseas and for whom hosts of our number gave up their lives," Mr. Moncur also severely criticized the press for what he claimed were garbled reports and misleading statements concerning the G. W. V. A. He also strongly condemned the Toronto housing commission as the greatest farce ever put over the returned men. "The veterans do not want to buy houses on Cowwell ave. at $4800 each, they want a cheap house to rent." Concluding he instilled the growing strength of the organization and the growing loyalty of the government in crushing them out of existence.

Fourteen new members were initiated.

FOX FILM PREFERRED TO LOCAL VETERANS.

W. J. Carmichael, organizer of the G. A. C., will investigate the administration of Massey Hall. He stated that Toronto veterans are indignant that the hall should be rented to an American firm rather than to a local body of returned soldiers. The G. A. C. wish to rent the hall for a boxing tournament for the entertainment of the Prince of Wales, new honorary president of the association. Massey Hall has been rented to the Fox Film Co. of New York. When approached by the veterans who explained their request for the hall, it is alleged that the manager of the film company said: "We don't care for soldiers or anybody else, we have the hall and won't let it go." An attempt to arrange boxing arrangements whereby the boxing tournament could be given was also unsuccessful.

G. W. V. A. REQUEST OBTAINS NO HEARING.

At the board of control meeting yesterday, the G. W. V. A. request for a hearing, intimating an application from the G. W. V. A., asking the city to help in furnishing a tent erected by the association at the Exhibition as a rest place for veterans. It was stated that the cost would be $370.

Controller McBride strongly opposed it, declaring that the meeting had been called for a special purpose. The application, he said, was out of order. "Let the Exhibition authorities look after this matter," he declared.

No action was taken by the board.

S. A. INVITES SOLDIERS.

Returned soldiers, their families and the number of about 300, will picnic today in High Park near the Bloor street entrance, as guests of the Dovercourt corps of the Salvation Army. The picnic has been scheduled for 1.30 p.m., when a series of games and sports will begin. At 5 o'clock, tea will be served to all the guests.

Special provision has been made by the Dovercourt corps to make this a bit and successful event, and provided good weather prevails, a large turnout and a good time is anticipated.

SECRETARY NOT YET LOCATED.

S. P. Stratton, late secretary of the Riverdale branch G. W. V. A., who it is said, disappeared from the city at the time $1000 of the funds of the branch were discovered to be missing, has not yet been located, according to the statement of J. E. Smith, a member of the investigating committee.

When last heard from Stratton was in Detroit.

GRENADIER GUARDS GIVEN NO CHANCE

Music Lovers Object That Band Will Not Play Enough.

Complaints are being heard all over the city as to the arrangements made for the public performances of the British Grenadier Guards' Band at the Exhibition. During the evening the band according to the official program is slated to play from 7.30 to 9 o'clock. This, it is pointed out, if an allowance is made for time lost between pieces, gives the lover of music but sixty minutes to hear the band's melody. Objectors, and they are many, say that in past years the "star" band of the Exhibition has always played in public from 8 to 10 o'clock, and that they had at least one hundred minutes of good music after allowing for intervals. In addition to getting less music in the band stand this year the objectors state that the hours set for the performances are inconvenient. A man after leaving his work, going home, having supper and cleaning up has little time to spare to make the Exhibition grounds before eight o'clock. How much melody is he going to receive for his quarter?

It is said the "Guards" after finishing at the band stand will join the massed bands, but music-lovers driven by H. Faben, 355 Browning avenue.

You Must Keep Warm Next Winter

Comfort Says so, and the Doctor Says so, too

You must consult your comfort. Does your house feel warm on cold days, on windy days, every day, all winter long? If not, don't try to make yourself think the present heating system will do. The discomfort of an insufficiently heated house is reason enough for putting in a new hot water boiler. But a stronger reason still, is that a chilly house causes colds, rheumatism, pneumonia and sicknesses of many kinds. Poorly heated houses are where the doctors most frequently call and where they present their largest bills.

Why Don't You Write Us and Ask What It Would Cost

After all, the first thing to do is to find out what it would cost. There is no use waiting for low prices, because commodity prices in all lines of metals and building materials will not go down. The demand for materials and all the cost in connection with manufacture, show no chance of reduction. You save nothing by delay, so act promptly. A King Hot Water Boiler and simply explained in our booklets and other literature. If a new boiler will add to your comfort, do not put off getting it in. Even at a higher initial cost, its economy is such that it makes a substantial saving in fuel, week by week, and this is multiplied over and over as long as the system is in service. Do not let a few dollars in cost prevent you having a warm house. If you spread the cost over a lifetime of winters the cost per season is trifling. Get your heating engineer to give you estimates on a King Hot Water System without delay.
