WORKING ON THE QUIET.

The syndicate working for oil in the oil fields of the north, are burying up options.

Winthrop, Sept. 3.—Hiram Walker is one of a syndicate that is boring for oil at DeWitt, whose oil boom of 30 years ago came to such an untimely end. The presence of Mr. Walker at the field yesterday gave rise to the report that immediate action had been made, but the members of the syndicate would only say that operations there are on an experimental basis, and any premature assertions as to the supply of oil would give rise to false hopes and induce people to invest unwisely and so lead to another boom and thus cause another wreck.
This sounds very plausible, but some of the farmers are inclined to view the view that the syndicate is simply trying to lure in and secure all the options on land that it requires.
Hiram Walker, already contributed 100 and 100 acres of land and other members of the syndicate are reported to have acquired as much more, thus giving them control of nearly all the desirable land in the vicinity. Property is increasing in value and proprietors are holding on.
This product of this district is said to yield a much higher percentage of refined oil than that produced in Pen-sylvania and to be almost equal to that of Pennsylvania.

A New Combined Law Firm.
The two law firms of Miller & Duncan and Grant & Skeane have united their business. The late Mr. J. R.
Miller having died a few weeks ago.
Mr. E. J. H. Duncan has succeeded to the business of the late firm, and has entered into partnership with Mr. W.
Grant and Mr. W. A. Skeane of the other firm, whose offices adjoin the new building. The new firm will be known as Duncan, Grant & Skeane, with offices in the Bank of Commerce Building, as heretofore.

Cheap Trip to Montreal.
The Merchants' Line of steamers has made a special rate of 50 cents and 20 return, including meals and berth, for the trip, for the balance of the session.

Perla and Ocean sail from Geddes' wharf at 3 o'clock Tuesday and Saturday afternoons, arriving at Montreal Thursday and Monday mornings at 8 o'clock. Passengers desiring to sail should apply for accommodation at once to Messrs. Geddes on the Wharf.

Want a Benevolent Fund.
A meeting of the York County Constitutional Association will be held on September 10 at the County Court House. A circular calling for the meeting has been issued by County Constable Burns, the secretary, and sets forth that it is contemplated to form a benevolent fund for the purpose of assisting constables injured in the execution of their duty, and giving to their relatives at death. It is the intention to approach the County Council for a grant towards the fund.

An Indian Burial Pit.
David Boyle, curator of the Archaeological Society, visited the Indian burial pit near Sheffield, Ont. and exhumed three or four hundred skull bones. He believes the pit was a place to which the Indians carried the dead at their great periodical feasts.

Business Embarrassments.
Peter and Andrew J. Haffey of Dundas have assigned to W. H. Hamilton, Van-cover, are asking in excess of $100,000.
Matthew Canning, farmer, Etobicoke, has assigned to W. H. Hamilton, Van-cover, are asking in excess of $100,000.
James Cain, general store, Huntsville,
has assigned to W. H. Hamilton, Van-
cover, are asking in excess of $100,000.
Cumbersome and useless. A crowded fruit to many persons so constituted the most indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, grippe, and other persons are not aware that they can indige to their heart's content. The doctor on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dietary Condensed Milk, which will give immediate relief, and a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Board of Trade Notes.
The Dominion Millers' Association met yesterday in Board of Trade building and transacted routine business. The election of officers will take place today.
The tenth annual meeting of the trustees of the Great Western Railway will be held yesterday afternoon. Mr. D. Matthews was elected for another three years.

WANTED—LYNCH DILLON

After the Adjournment of the Convention in Dublin Yesterday.

The Leader sought Refuge in a Hotel to Get Away From the Howling Mob—The Convention Decided Not to Take the Stand of Maintaining the Absolute Independence of the Irish Party of the English—A Trouble Breeder Talks.

Dublin, Sept. 3.—The third day's session of the Irish Race convention was opened today, Right Rev. Patrick O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, presiding. Michael Davitt read messages from societies and individuals in New York, Queensland and elsewhere, expressing hopes that a complete union of the sections of the Irish party would be effected.

Dean Harris of Toronto protested against the conduct of a Dublin newspaper in describing the convention as a "Canadian delegate to the convention, as a companion of Le Caron, the spy and informer." (Cheers.)

Canon McCarty supported a resolution setting forth that it was the prime duty of the Irish party to maintain its absolute independence of the English and to preserve its perfect freedom to oppose any policy that the best interests of the National cause may dictate.

Wants a Union for a Leader.
Hugh Murphy of Glasgow expressed his belief that the convention would conclude that John J. Dillon should remain the leader of the Irish National party at home and abroad, with the exception of the United States, where the party must be ruled by the majority.

Mr. Loughlin of Bradford held that as long as there was Home Rule plank in the platform of the Liberal party the Irish party should support it. He said that Canon McCarty declared that there should be no alliance with any English party, and he said that the Irish party should be independent of the English and to preserve its perfect freedom to oppose any policy that the best interests of the National cause may dictate.

Mr. O'Donnell of Montreal urged the necessity of complete union of the party sections.

Mr. Costigan, delegate from Ottawa, said that the assembly present gave assurance that no man had been practically expelled. He himself, he said, would not have been expelled, and he said that the convention was a genuine and representative meeting of the Irish of the world, convened in regular form and from the proper quarters. Majority rule, he declared, must prevail.

A Trouble Breeder.
Delegate Fitzgerald of Bermuda proposed an amendment declaring that the time will come when the Irish National party will support the Liberal party, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will be devoted to mak-
party will be devoted to making an English Government, and that the party will
