PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Miss Eugenie Blair will open her special engagement at the Grand next week with "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." This will be an important event in Toronto theatricals, as not only has the play never been seen in Toronto with Miss Blair in the title role, but outside of a few productions that have been given at the highest scale of prices, plays have not had an opportunity of meeting one of the most remarkable players of our times. A. W. Pinero, in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," has given one of the most vivid pictures of modern society ever presented on the stage.

Richards & Pringle's famous Georgia Minstrel will close the season at the Majestic the first three nights of next week. The company this season has been greatly augmented with an army of the most inviting up-to-date novelties ever seen in minstrelsy, cleverly strung together for laughing purposes only. The olio artists are Gaddy and Crawford, music dealers; J. W. Cooper, ventriloquist; William Goodie and his "Ham Town" Serenaders Quartet; Boornack, for eight years assistant of Herman the Great, with his tricks in magic; the whole to conclude with the funny farce, "Jim Jackson on the Pike at the World's Fair."

"The Bowery," who are booked to entertain during the week commencing next Monday, at the Star Theatre, are displaying this season one of the grandest offerings ever presented upon any stage. The principal feature is a musical comedy entitled "The Gay Modist," a real bit of Parisian life, showing many intimate details of the life of the city, stirring, fascinating and hypnotizing. In the course of the play many characters are portrayed who are to be seen daily in the boulevard resorts and cafes chantant.

J. C. Whitney has been in town and says that a new billiard theatre. In the meantime it will be repeated.

For the close of the season at the Princess next week an attraction is offered which theatre patrons will regard as one of the most enjoyable of the season. Miss Henrietta Cromwell will play the week there, and her return to Toronto is an event which all theatre patrons will view with gratification. Everybody will wish to see her again in her famous comedy success, "Misses Nell," on Tuesday night and Wednesday matinee she will appear in "Nancy Oldfield" and "Madelaine."

WHO THREW HIM OVER THE FENCE?
Chas. Devlin Makes an Inquiry in British Commons.

London, May 25.—A somewhat lively scene occurred in the house of commons this afternoon when Charles Devlin asked the names of the constables who threw Higgins, J.P., over a stone wall at Carrowood on April 30. Secretary Long replied that Higgins was not thrown over the wall. Devlin retorted, "I don't believe that. I have seen the man in the hospital, and he has told me that he was thrown over the wall." Long replied he had reason to believe his information was correct. The deputy speaker remarked that the question could be raised in committee on supply when Devlin again rose. Then Corbett, M.P., rose with a question of order amid Nationalist cries of "Throw him over the front benches."

JEWIS FIGHT AT WARSAW.
Warsaw, May 25.—Four persons died to-day as the result of injuries received in the Jewish disorders last night. Many people were wounded during today's fighting.

The disorders arose from an attempt of the Jewish Socialist organization to purge the Hebrew district of Warsaw of all disreputable persons. The Bundists, with the view of expelling their undesirable co-religionists, commenced a riotous and disorderly house. The fighting spread to the surrounding streets, continued until midnight and recommenced this morning.

The Bundists have been permitted to carry on the work of destruction without any interference on the part of the authorities.

ROY'S GOING TO FIGHT WILL FORCE TOGO'S HAND

Russian Admiralty Expects Word of Conflict Any Day Now—Port Arthur Won't Be Repeated.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—Admiral Avellan, head of the Russian admiralty department, confirms the Associated Press despatches saying Vice-Admiral Rojstevsky is steaming north to give battle to Admiral Togo. He considers it possible that news to the effect that the two fleets have met may be received any day. Admiral Avellan reaffirms the official denial of the reports that Rojstevsky has broken down and asked to be relieved. Avellan says Rojstevsky sent detailed reports of the condition of his own health and of the health of the crews of his ships. The constant tension and hard work of the past months have been a great strain on the admiral's health.

"Do you anticipate a sea fight soon?" the admiral was asked. He replied: "Certainly. The Japanese cannot afford to allow Rojstevsky to reach Vladivostok without an engagement. I personally expect it to take place in the near future, though I admit the admiralty knows nothing of Rojstevsky's strategy or plans, the emperor having accorded him complete freedom of action."

In response to a suggestion that Togo might intentionally allow Rojstevsky to get to Vladivostok, contenting himself with deriding attacks while the Russians are on their way there, and then try to bottle Rojstevsky up in Vladivostok, Admiral Avellan smiled and said:

"The story of Port Arthur will not be repeated. Rojstevsky will try to wrest the mastery of the sea from Togo. There are many ways of compelling Togo to accept battle. Rojstevsky will only have to bombard one of the coast cities to force Togo to appear in its defence."
