DEATH OF REV. DR. SULLIVAN

One of Canada's Most Distinguished Churchmen.

He Was Ordained by the Late Bishop Cronyn in This City and Became Bishop of Algoma-An Eventful Career Closed.

The death of the Right Rev. Edward Sullivan, rector of St. James' Church, Toronto, removes one of Canada's most powerful preachers and distinguished churchman. He was a master of eloquence, and was widely known through-Liverpool, Jan. 5.-Prices here and in out Canada and Great Britain. His London are much firmer. American devotion to duty was always very marked, and his labors most zealous.

Deceased was born at Lurgan, Ireland, Aug. 18, 1832, and graduated at Trinity College, Dublin, in 1857. Coming to Canada in 1858, he was ordained deacon in that year, and to the priesthood in 1859, by the late Bishop Cronyn, in this city. Appointed to a mission in London township, he labored in that field until 1862, when he became assistant to Bishop Bond at St.

George's, Montreal. In 1868 deceased was appointed rector of Trinity Church, Chicago, and be-came very popular with the large and influential congregation. He was recalled to Montreal in 1878 to take over the rectorship of St. George's Church, and remained there until his elevation to the episcopate as second bishop of Algoma in 1882. His first year's record in Algoma was to travel some 11,000 miles by land and water in promoting the interests of his charge. But a little more than a year after becoming bishop of Algoma, Dr. Sullivan was elected by a large majority to the vacant chair of his old Diocese of Huron. He replied: "My duty to Algoma compels me to decline." Before failing health compelled him to take needed rest, in 1893, 26 new churches were built, 10 others rebuilt, and a roll of 68 churches free of debt was the splendid monument which he had erect-

In 1896 Dr. Sullivan was appointed rector of St. James' Church, Toronto, in succession to the late Bishop Dumoulin, and held this charge up to the time of his death.

While in Chicago, the degree of S. T. Toronto, Jan. 6—11 a.m.—Prob- D. (doctor of sacred theology) was conabilities for the lower lakes region ferred upon him. He was also a memfor the next twenty-four hours: ber of Trinity University council, and a vice-president of the Burial Reform Association. He was married in 1868 to Frances Mary, second daughter of Edward Renaud, of Neufchatel, Two children survive.

THE LAST MOMENTS.

[G. N. W. Special to The Advertiser.] Toronto, Jan. 6 .- A few minutes before Dr. Sullivan's death he seemed to have a permonition that his departure was at hand, for he called his family around, and one by one bade them his last farewell.

Bishop Sullivan preached his last sermon at the morning service at St. James' Cathedral on Tuesday, Dec. 11. He was then quite well. On the following Thursday afternoon he conducted his Bible class as usual, at the church. and then showed signs of illness. During his absence from home, Irving H. Cameron, his physician, called at his residence, and upon his return assured him that he was too ill for work. On the following day Bishop Sullivan was taken seriously sick with the complicated trouble from which he never recovered. The bishop's condition was rendered critical by a complication of troubles and a general break-down of the system.

STILL PURSUING THE CITY CLERK

Mr. Bartram Makes Another Application for an Interlocutory Injunction-Judgment Reserved.

Notice of motion for an injunction, to be made at the next sitting of the weekly high court, to be held here on Thursday, Jan. 12, was served upon Mr. Kingston this morning. The injunction sought by Mr. Bartram is to restrain Mr. Kingston from in any way acting on the elections held on Jan. 2, 1899, on the ground that the election is void, for reasons set forth in the writ. An appointment was taken out by Mr. Bartram to examine Mr. Kingston on Monday next at 11 o'clock before Deputy Clerk John Macbeth, Mr. Bartram then applied ex parte to Judge William Elliot for an interlocutory injunction until Thursday next, but the senior judge declined to entertain it. Mr. Bartram applied to Junior sudge Edward Elliott, who at first declined, and the use of ether or chloroform. He then reserved his judgment until to-

CITY HALL NOTES.

The all-important subject for consideration in municipal circles at present is the personnel of the standing committees of the council. This will not be definitely known until the meeting on Monday morning, yet there are plenty of indications as to which way the wind is blowing. Mayor Wilson suggests striking the committees as

No 1 (the finance committee)-Ald. Rumball, O'Meara, Southcott, Graham, Dreaney and Greenlees.
No. 2 (the board of works)—Ald.

McPhillips, Douglass, Reed, Garratt, Wilkey and Parnell. No. 3 (fire, light and market committee)—Ald. Pritchard, Jolly, Winnett, Malloch, Plant and McCallum.

about 40, and are a likely-looking lot tion of Ald. Graham to the chairmanship of No. 1 committee is practically assured, the mayor thinks. No. 2 committee's chairmanship, however, is not so well settled. Ald. Dreaney, who is booked for No. 1 committee by the mayor, not only contends for a posi-tion on No. 2, but considers the chair is his due-after all these years. Ald. Greenlees and Douglass each think they have claims for the position that Ald Dreaney covets. With respect to No. 3 committee chairman also the moving spirits are still undecided. It is likely that the mayor's slate will be considerably altered before the council gets through with it.

EXPLOSION!

Eight Persons Killed and Forty Injured.

Windows Broken Half a Mile Away From Where the Boiler Burst.

London, Jan. 6 .- A big boiler, while being treated in Hewitt's shipbuilding yard at Barking, a town about seven miles from here, burst today, and the superintending engineer and eight men were killed. About 40 persons were injured, some fatally. The bodies of the dead were frightfully mutilated. The whole shipbuilding works was wrecked. A lad was found dead 300 yards away. A number of men and boys are missing. The windows in houses half a mile away were shattered.

SHE OUGHT TO KNOW

Miss Helen Gould Says She Did Not Jilt Gen. Wheeler.

New York, Jan. 6 .- Something of a sensation has been created in Washington by a published story to the effect that General Joseph Wheeler had pro-posed to Miss Helen Gould and had been rejected.

Gen. Wheeler greatly admires Miss Gould, but he never contemplated marriage, his friends say. Ever since he returned from the war, General Wheeler has been singing the praises of Miss Gould, and this fact may have led people to believe that he loved her and desired to make her his wife.

On the other hand, it is known that Miss Gould is convinced that General Wheeler was one of the brightest and bravest figures in the war, and she has not hesitated to say so.

'Mise Gould, however, denied the story today in these words: "The story is absolutely untrue. I positively deny

A WOMAN'S SCREAM!

Probably Prevented Her Own Murder and a Suicide as Well.

New York, Jan. 6 .- One piercing scream from a woman prevented her own murder and probably the suicide of the man who had planned her death in a Bleecker street hotel early this morning. Held with her face over the open burners of a gas stove, the fingers of her would-be murderer clutching her throat, it was her last desperate effort in her fight for life.

When help came she was found unconscious, not only from the gas, but from a drug which her companion had administered. Six open jets were then pouring volumes of gas into the room. The woman was sent to St. Vincent's Hospital, and the man was taken to the Mercer street station, where he was found to be a well-known convict nam-

It was learned at the hospital that the woman was a Mrs. Hannon, who, with two children, lives at 41 Downing street. She said she had lived with Price most of the time for six years. but a short time ago had refused to live with him any longer. He wanted her to support him, and attempted to drive her on the streets. Last night he told her to meet him at the hotel, and threatened terrible revenge if she should not. She complied, not daring

Winnipeg, Jan. 6 .- Fifty-two branches of chartered banks, and several private banks, were opened in Mani-toba and the territories last year.

Doctors Testify.

There's strong testimony by eminent physicians of wonderful cures made by Chase's Family Remedies-particularly Dr. Chase's Ointment.

An English physician has discovered a way of producing local anaesthesia without the loss of consciousness or uses moderate currents of electricity frequently interrupted.

A DINNER PILL.-Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partak-ing of a hearty dinner. The food par-taken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmiee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.

Why will you allow a cough to lacerate your throat or lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive's grave, when, by the timely use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided? ## CHASED BY A CUTTER

Lively Experience of the Canadian Sealer Enterprise.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 6 .- The revenue cutter Richard Rush has had an exciting experience. The Canadian sealer Enterprise attempted to leave the harbor in defiance of the law, and with a customs officer on board, the Rush cleared for action, and started in pursuit, overtaking the Enterprise outside the Heads. The Enterprise is liable to seizure and a heavy fine for being in American waters without having made proper entry. She put in here in distress some time ago and sailed, but later returned to port.

IN DEADLY PERIL!

Occupants of a Tenement House Hemmed in by Fire and Smoke.

New York, Jan. 6 .- Cut off by smoke and flames from their only means of escape, a score of persons stricken with panic clamored wildly for help, at the front windows of the big tenement house, 236 East Ninety-seventh street, early this morning. Fearing many would jump into the street, the fire nets were spread below. Henry Mernstein, crazed with fright, jumped wildly. He missed the nets and landed on the payement. He was sent to Harlem nos pital with a broken ankle and internal injuries. Another man was overcome by smoke and taken out unconscious. The other tenants, men, women and children, were carried down the ladders by the firemen or lowered by life lines. All escaped without injury.

Estimated value, $5,000,000.

MAINE PLOT STORY DOUBTED. Havana, Cuba, Jan. 6 .- The newspaper Reconcentrado fails to give the details it promised of a plot to blow up the Maine, in which Judge Bresmes was alleged to be the chief conspirator. The story is looked upon with suspicion here.

WENT THROUGH A TRESTLE. Herkimer, N. Y., Jan. 6.—A passenger engine running light on the Adirondack and St. Lawrence Railroad, went through a trestle at the junction of the Northern and New York Central roads in this village. Trainman Brown, Fireman James Brennan, and Andrew Moore, all of Herkimer, were on the engine. The first two were thrown into the water below the trestle, and after swimming several hundred feet were rescued. Moore is missing, and his body is probably pinned under the water in the wreck.

THE LIVING AGE.

Several features of striking interest will be found in the opening numbers of the Living Age for the new year.
The number for January 7 contains, among other things, a pungent and wholesome lecture on Art and Morality, by M. Ferdinand Brunetiere, which is translated for the magazine and copyrighted by it; the first installment of the Etchingham Letters, which are attracting wide notice in The Cornhill by their cleverness; and the beginning of a short serial. The number for Jan. 14 gives the full text of Lord Rosebery's recent address on Literary Statesmen, which has been the subject of general comment; an article from Blackwood's on The Ethics of Conquest, which relates to the Philippines; and a bright paper on The Madness of Mr. Kipling.

The great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membranes of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain of
