Temps urged that France should get a clear-cut distinction on this mat-ter, not only in the case of the Turkish ter not only in the case of the Turkish Nationalists, but with regard to Eastern Europe and Asia Minor generally—Lithuania and Georgia, for instance.

Once France had that point settled she could guide her future policy accordingly. In other words, she could begin detaching from the Bolsheviki those who are only associated with them, but not converted to their doctrine. For, despite the collapse of Wrangel, France has not swerved in her hostility towards the Soviets. PASTORS AND LAYMEN MEET AT DRESDEN

DRESDEN. Nov. 24.—The pastors' and laymen's conference of the Western Baptist Association was held yesterday afternoon and evening in the North Dresden Baptist Church. Representatives from the churches at Windsor, Leamington, Blenheim, Kingsville, Thamesville and Detroit were present. President Hughson Johnstone of Windsor was in the chair, and a devotional exercise, led by Rev. W. C. Pearce of Dresden was first on the afternoon program. After an interval of business, Rev. D. C. Gray of Windsor gave an address on "A Successful Every-Member Canvass," which was followed by a discussion. Following this was another address FREE ELECTRICITY FOR HOME LIGHTING

French Scientist Discovers Plan For Using Power followed by a discussion.

Following this was another address by Rev. E. C. Gosnell of Kingsville, on "The Pulpit Use of the Old Testament Prophets," and at 4 o'clock Rev. Llewellyn Brown of Detroit addressed the conference on "Making the Public Service More Worshipful."

In the evening Rev. E. S. Walker of Thamesville led the devotional exercises, after which Rev. F. G. Burrell of Leamington spoke on "The Essence of Sin." After music by the choir and the offering, Rev. L. Brown of Detroit in an address told how to create an atmosphere for a revival. From Water Taps.

PARIS, Nov. 24.-Every house with its own electric generating installation. is the dream which M. E. Colardeau French scientist expounded before the French Academy of sciences recently. "We waste too much energy," was hi text, and he proceeded to show how scandalous was the waste. Wind power was wasted wholesale but even more culpable was the waste of waterpower within one's own house. "The force of every kitchen and bathroom tap is wasted," he declared, and he put forward a scheme which he be-room tap is wasted," he declared, and he put forward a scheme which he believes can be made practicable to utilize the force from the water that runs from every kitchen tap. Paris desires its water from a reservoir 200 feet above the city.

This is where M. Colardeau's invention comes in. In his own house he has fitted on his supply pipe a high-speed water turbine, giving direct energy to a dynamo, with a little battery of accumulators. Every time that the taps are turned on the little generating station works and the batteries accumlate the energy from the water, with his own installation the scientist claims he can light one 500-candle-power lamp, or 20 lamps of from 15 to 20 candlepower.

In his house he uses no other installation, and it never gives out and never costs him anything. In the country places M. Colardeau would use the wind to pump water up to the required heights, and so transfer the wind energy into water energy, which in turn would be transferred into electric energy with an apparatus similar to that described above.

"When we've done that," he concluded, "we needn't any longer worry about the exhaustion of the coal stocks of the world."

Similar Control of the was asked if he was aware of any negotiations with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission for the purchase of these four radial lines. He replied: "The negotiations appear to have been carried on by the daily press of Toronto and not by the parties interested."

The Hamilton-Oakville radial line, the main railway of the four managed by Mr. Coleman, has never shown an increase over operating costs in any year except in 1912. Mr. Coleman said.

Colonel George Royce, manager of the Toronto Suburban Railway, told the commission that this line was a losing proposition, but could be made to pay if access could be secured to this city. The line would pay, Colonel Royce said, if it could be extended from Guelph to Kitchener. He cited figures showing a deficit in 1918 of $119,170, and in 1919 of $102,407.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Congress of Eastern Peoples, which was held at Baku in September, decided to undertake a campaign of agitation and propaganda among the Mohammedan women of the East, says a wireless dispatch from Moscow, quoting the Russian newspaper Pravdo. Women delegates to that congress are declared to have urged a convention of another congress to be composed exclusively of women of the East. Soviet Russia would be represented in such a congress by delegates from Astrakhan, Turkestan, Daghestan and Azerbaidjan.

The purpose of the proposed campaign, as defined by the newspaper, would be to induce Eastern women to "take their places in the ranks of the strugglers for the liberation of the East."

To attain that object, the Congress of Eastern Peoples decided to organize women's guilds, so as to carry on agitation among them and induce them to become associated with public iife and to draw them away from the narrow interests of domestic life. The congress decided also to ask clubs and schools to give wide scope to the agitation and propaganda among Moslem women.

"Is must be clear that the East has awakened, once women have removed awakened, once women have remove the veil," says the Pravda.
