How to Beautify a Summer Soiled Face

It's really a simple matter to renovate face solled by sun, winds or dirt. Ormercolized wax, used like cold will transform the worst old cominto one of snowy whiteness and valvety softness. It literally peels off the vell of surface skin, but so gently, adually, there's no discomfort. The wornskin comes off, not in patches, but venly, in tiny particles, leaving no evidence the treatment. The younger, healthier kin, forming the new complexion, is one of captivating loveliness. One ounce of mercolized wax, to be had at any drug store, abough to remove any tanned, reddened, before retiring, washing it off mornings.

Many skins wrinkle easily with every wind tat blows, with heat, worry, etc. An excellent wrinkle remover, because it tightens akin and strengthens relaxed muscles, wash lotion made as follows: Powdered axolite, i oz., dissolved in witch hazel, ½ lat. This gives immediate results.

POLITICAL FLURRY STIRS REICHSTAG

of Peace Resolution by Michaelis.

Berlin, Aug. 23 .- (Via London, Aug. 24).—Berlin was surprised to learn on wakening this morning that the reichstag building yesterday afternoon had been the scene of a political flurry which assumed varying proportions as seen thru partisan editorial eye glasses.

The incident which brought about the temporary disagrement between the majority coalition and the chancellor was the chancellor's somewhat indefinite phrasing of his attitude to-ward the reichstag peace proposal. The impression created was that Dr. Michaelis was circumscribing his endorsement of that action.
