ed between the Somme and the Aisne. The French have occupied Tergnier, an important railroad junction on the line between Amiens and Rheims, and have crossed the St. Quentin canal. French aviators report the destruction by the Germans of the historic ruins of Coucy-le-Chateau, one of the most striking monuments of the feudal ages in Europe, built early in the 13th century.

CARRY OFF YOUNG GIRLS. The French war office officially announces that in evacuat ing Noyon the Germans carried away by force fifty young girls ranging in age from 15 to 25 years.

The text of the statement reads: From the Somme to the Aisne our troops, while making new progress, occupied the reconquered zone. North of the Somme our cavalry pushed forward as far as the outskirts of Roupy, about seven kilometres from St. Quentin, where they gave chase to German cavalry patrols.

Northeast of Chauny our infantry occupied Tergnier today and crossed the canal of St. Quentin. Several lively skirmishe with enemy detachments ended to our advantage.

In the course of this pursuit extended over several days we have suffered quite insignificant losses on the entire front. Everywhere in our advance we have been able to observe proven vandalism and systematic destruction carried out by the enemy which for the greater part was of no military value.

This afternoon our aviators reported that the historic ruins of Coucy-le-Chateau have been destroyed by an explosion. Evacuating Noyon the enemy carried off by brute force fifty young girls, from 15 to 25 years of age. The day was relatively calm on the rest of the front. Belgian communication:

The artillery duel was less intense than on preceding days because of the bad weather, which hampered all artillery activity.

UNIFORM CONTRACT WAS FROM BRITISH Berlin Says Warship of Danton

So Royal Commission Reports on Charges Made by Toronto Trade Publication.

Ottawa, March 20 .- Sir Charles Davidson, royal commissioner on war contracts, issued a report tonight on Mediterranean, sank a large French the charges made editorially by Men's battleship of the Danton class, protected by destroyers.

Wear, a Toronto trade publication, "The battleship was running a zighas no more experience in clothing minutes later." manufacture than the member of parfarmed out the order to a firm of foreigners at a net profit of over twen thousand dollars."

Sir Edward Kemp, who was the chairman of the war purchasing com-mission, issued a public denial of the charges. Sir Charles Davidson reports that C. E. Hopkins, 30 Adelaide street east, Toronto, secured a British contract not a Canadian contract, and that it was carried out by Hopkins and the Clothing Co. He financed the undertaking to the extent of $40,000, and this included material in addition to the machinery outfit of the company. The contract was entirely the product of negotiations between British agents, then in Canada, and Hopkins.

ir Charles adds: "Neither directly nor indirectly had the militia department nor the purchasing commission any connection with it. The statement of Acton (editor of Men's Wear) in re cognition of the fact, and his frank admission that the evidence has wholly cleared both department and sion from any wrongdoing in the premises, deserves commendation.

SCORE'S ESTATE SALE.

The most sanguine expectations for the success of the $50,000 estate sale heing held by the R. Score and Son. Limited, tailors and haberdashers, are than realized, for while it was counted on that Toronto gentlemen would give such a sale the keenest and most practical appreciation. Scores themselves could hardly credit, even at the substantial discounts being offered on the stock of high-class woolens, that there would be such a rush of orders as there has been. It is a sale conducted on real merit.

American Steamer Captain Reports Two Subs Trapped

Newport, R.I., March 20 .- The trapping of two German submarines was tonight by Captain E. L. Smith, of the American steamer Alaskan, which arrived today from La Pallice, France, for New York, according to the pilot who brought the ship in-to the harbor. The U-boats, Captain Smith said, were detected lurking beneath the surface of the sea by keeneved observers of the aircraft patrol. The airplane signaled for trawlers and circled about directing the placing of nets. In a little while the nets were drawn completely about the unsuspecting submersibles, which were hopelessly enmeshed, and brought to the surface. They were lying side by side in the harbor of La Pallice when the Alaskan sailed.

have made for rapid concentrations anywhere, the enemy would have to gain a rapid decision, say, in 24 hours to win. Experience so far has proved that no army can pierce a line in the west in so short a time. What appears chiefly to affect the military writers who now utter warnings about a German offensive has been their previous habit of overcaution, gained by the timorous policy imposed on the armies by the previous British and French Governments.

A despatch from the Canadian front gives certain signs of German prising matters which his department preparations for a retrograde. The enemy knows that he has to go back considers ought to be discussed, and to new positions pretty soon, for since the Arras salient has gene, the Lens salient, against which the Canadians are maintaining great pressure. has become untenable. The German guns have replied more feebly to the Canadian heavy guns, suggesting that many have found new emplacements in the line of Von Hindenburg.

The allies have renewed the campaign in Macedonia with a successful forward march north of Monastir. French troops made the assault, Its deliberations, which touch matters and in heavy attacks they captured Hill 1248, the Snegovo Monastery most intimately affecting the conduct and in heavy attacks they captured Hill 1248, the Snegovo Monastery and the Village of Rashtani, These positions formed strong points in the line occupied by the enemy after the loss of Monastir. The French made more than 1200 prisoners and they took nine machine guns. East of Lake Doiran the British took many prisoners in some raids. The successful action of the allies seems to show that they are about to resume their forward march against Bulgaria and the line of the Danube. This threat will prevent the sending of much German aid or many reinforcements to Turkey. The enemy dares not risk the danger of having these troops locked up in Turkey.

Latest despatches from Washington show that President Wilson preparing for an open declaration of war with Germany. The German retreat and the success of the Russian revolution are causing him to abandon his cautious policy. The United States naval department is organizing its anti-submarine defences. "Look at the manner in which you are being ireated in this disrict by the express companies," said Mr. Simpson. "They are not out to meet a public need, but for their own aggrandizement. The labor party is in hearty sympathy with your movement to get redress, and in the matter of the manufacture of nunitions of war. Look at the tremendous sacrifice of human life at the front and the manufacturers at home enjoying their vast profits. They should be taxed more than they are. If they were getting six per cent, profit it would be ample remuneration, but they are getting hundreds per cent, and their factories and machinery can still be used after the war is over for manufacturing other commodities.

Under the auspices of the Caledonia Ratepayers' Association. Ex-Controller James Simpson delivered an interesting address in Hughess School, last night, on the labor movement. Vice-President E. Norman occupied the chair.

and machinery can still be used after the war is over for manufacturing other commodities.

"It is indefensible. They are making fortunes while men are dying. It ought to be the thought of the taxpayer to see where his taxes will benefit the city, and in my opinion civic improvements can be made by individual efforts. Income tax is a good way to raise revenues to reduce taxation as a whole and succession duties and the unearned increment tax should be made heavy," said the speaker, who pointed out that in the case of city development, the taxpayer should not oppose the purchase of parks, as it is money well spent. "In the expropriation of land for parks, people sometines ask for limitations, losing sight of the city beautiful and the health of the children, who benefit by the open spaces," said the speaker. He referred to the City of Chicago, where large blocks of houses were cleared away and supervised playgrounds established.

"The city could also improve in the construction of sidewalks and other works on the local improvement plan without paying out the tremendous profits to private contractors, and this could be done by day labor which I have always advocated," said Mr. Simpson "We should establish public baths, gardens and at the same time not allow an owner of desirable land to exploit the city. In conclusion the speaker sulegized Dr. Hastings, medical officer of health, for his work on behalf of the citizens and Sir Adam Beck for his untiring efforts in his hydro-electric scheme.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last night fire was discovered in the Stouffville Public School and despite the efforts of the volunteer fire brigade, which was on the grounds within a few minutes, the handsome seven-storey building was burned to the ground, entailing a loss noticed the building was literally on fire from the basement up. In addition to the public school there was a large continuation class, and five teachers were engaged. There is insurance of about $8000 on the building and contents. The Inevitable

No man is capable of foreseeing his own future. No man can see beyond to-day. There comes a time in every man's life when the silver cord will break. With some, it comes unexpectedly, perhaps early in life. With some, it may be preceded by long weeks of sickness. But with all, it comes some day. Have you made any provision for your dependents? If death should claim you tomorrow, would your dependents be provided for? The inevitable may come when you least expect it. Protect your loved ones by carrying one of our guaranteed policies.
