EMPIRE AND NATIONS HONOR MEMORY OF HEROIC DEAD

TORONTO HONORS GLORIOUS DEAD

Solemn and Impressive Scenes Mark Second Anniversary of Armistice Day—Two-Minute Silence Thruout City—Ten Thousand People at Civic Service.

Toronto ceased its multifarious occupations yesterday for a short time to lay fresh tributes on the altar in memory of the heroic ones who fought and died in the great war.

Both stock exchanges, the Toronto and the Standard, suspended business for two minutes at the noon hour in honor of the day.

THE GLORIOUS DEAD, THE MEN WHO DIED THAT CIVILIZATION MIGHT BE SAVED TO THE WORLD.

London, Nov. 11.—The Irish home rule bill passed the house of commons on its third reading tonight after a motion for rejection of the measure proposed by Wm. C. Adamson, the opposition leader, had been defeated by 183 to 52.

Former Premier Asquith appealed for advantage to be taken of the associations and emotions aroused by the anniversary of Armistice Day, which could not be put to worthier use than an endeavor to find a basis for real settlement of Ireland's troubles.

Is a Generous Measure. Mr. Lloyd George, replying, contended that the present bill was a generous measure, but the Irish people were not in a temper to give it proper understanding and consideration.

PREMIER DRURY BECOMES MASON

Prime Minister of Ontario is Honored Guest at Corinthian Lodge of Barrie.

Barrie, Ont., Nov. 11.—(Special)—An event of marked interest in Masonic circles, not only for this town, but for all Ontario, was the presence tonight of Premier Drury at the Masonic supper and reunion in Trinity parish hall.

The Paper Slump.

The paper profiteers are trying to keep their courage up by talking of higher prices than ever, and of five-year contracts at six cents a pound.

Gen. Wrangel's Forces Slowly Falling Back

Sebastopol, Nov. 11.—The Bolsheviks are attacking General Wrangel's troops in strong force from both wings in the Crimean peninsula. They have succeeded in bringing up their artillery and, according to latest advices, Wrangel's forces are slowly falling back.

League to Consider the Admission of Former Enemy States.

FRANCE IS OPPOSED

Geneva, Nov. 11.—Lord Robert Cecil, one of the chief officers of the League of Nations covenant, who is coming to the assembly of the league as a delegate from South Africa, will support the proposed immediate admission to the league of former enemy states.

LAKE TO SEA ROUTE STRONGLY OPPOSED

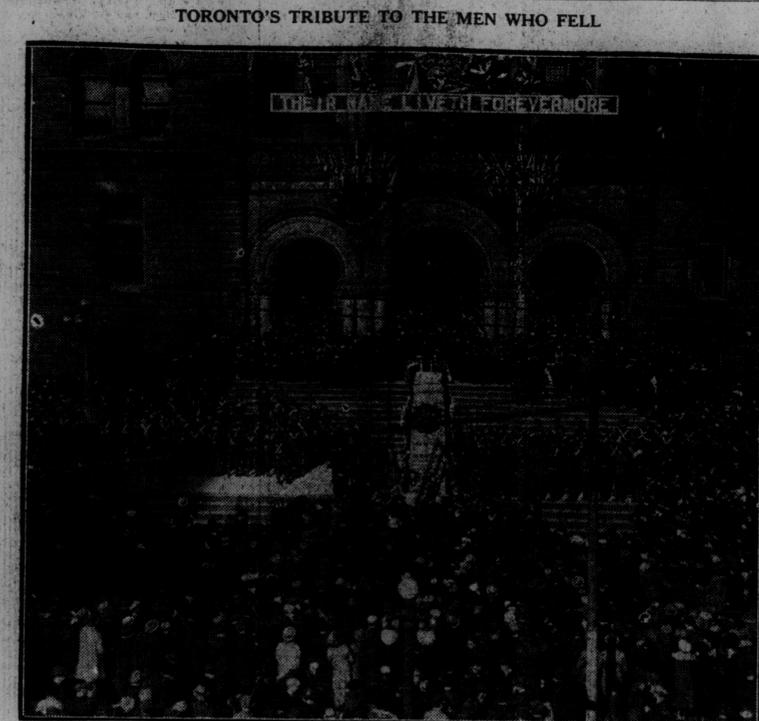

New York State Waterways' Association Calls St. Lawrence Project Unsound.

Buffalo, N.Y., Nov. 11.—The New York State Waterways' Association in convention here today expressed "unalterable opposition" to the proposal for a lake to sea waterway via the Welland Canal and the St. Lawrence River.

SUGAR REFINERS STILL STAND PAT

Retailer Offers at Twelve Cents Supply Obtained From Speculator.

Montreal, Nov. 11.—(Canadian Press).—The sugar fight today had a number of thrills, not the least of which was the advertised sale by a retailer of sugar at 12 cents a pound, which was a quantity bought from a small speculator.

Thousands assembled in front of the city hall at noon yesterday, the second anniversary of the armistice, to attend the special air memorial service. The cenotaph, with its beautiful floral decorations, was a fitting symbol of the spirit of sacrifice which animated Canada's fighting sons, with lie in Flanders' fields. The striking of the hour of noon was the signal for entering upon two minutes of silence, after which the buglers of the Royal Canadian Dragoons sounded "The Last Post."

That nothing was done yesterday afternoon to select the new leader of the Conservative party in Ontario was the statement made by Capt. Joe Thompson, M.L.A., after the meeting at the Albany Club, of the executive committee which is planning the Conservative convention, to take place in Toronto early in December.

CHILD IS STRICKEN AND DIES ON STREET

Unusually sad were the circumstances of the death last night of little Margaret Rothstein, 85 Brunswick avenue, who was suddenly taken ill while walking along College street, near Major street, dying within a few minutes. She was apparently walking from an athletic field or gymnasium, as she wore a "gym" suit.

STRUCK BY MOTOR CAR MAN IS BADLY HURT

Mike Cullinan lies seriously injured at St. Michael's Hospital as the result of an accident last night at the eastern end of the Don bridge, near the C.N.R. station, where he was struck by automobile No. 148,075, owned and driven by Mrs. Elizabeth Schultz, 33 Munroe Park avenue, Kew Beach.

FOUR CHILDREN PERISH IN FIRE NEAR SYDNEY

Sydney, N.S., Nov. 11.—Four children were burned to death at Big Pond tonight. At 10.30 fire broke out in the house of Mr. and Mrs. Nell McJasac, and within a few minutes the house was a mass of flames. It was impossible to rescue four of the children. One child was saved, altho Mr. McJasac was seriously burned in the rescue. Mrs. McJasac sustained minor injuries.

Cenotaph in Whitehall Unveiled by King and Unknown Soldier Buried in Westminster Abbey

Monument Covered by Floral Tributes—Guard of Honor by Victoria Cross Winners—Field Marshals and Admirals Pallbearers.

London, Nov. 11.—In historic Whitehall tonight Great Britain's "glorious dead" stood half buried beneath hundreds of flower tokens of the nation's sorrowing appreciation of their sacrifices.

A few hundred yards away, in Westminster Abbey, amidst the tombs of the realm's great men, reposed the body of the empire's "newest immortal"—an unknown comrade of those whose lives the cenotaph memorializes.

Every part of the empire, all classes of its citizens, from the King to bereaved relatives of the humblest private, participated in the impressive unifying ceremonies and the subsequent burial rites in the abbey.

During the ceremonies Whitehall and the streets adjacent to the abbey were jammed with people, most of whose faces mutely told the tale of lost loved ones. The two-minute silence which fell over this consecrated course as "Big Ben" thudded the hour of eleven seemed to vibrate with the repressed emotions.

It was a silence broken only by the hysterical shriek of a woman, who collapsed from the intensity of its spell. On the tenth stroke of the great clock the King pulled the cord unveiling the imposing monument, and with the others, stood uncovered and with bowed head. Then, after his wreath and those of the Prince of Wales and the other overseas representatives had been reverently deposited at the base of the cenotaph, the field marshal pallbearers with

RAILWAYMEN TO ACT ON POLITICAL ORDER

To Gather in Winnipeg and Decide Course, Following Dismissal of A. E. Mount.

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—(By Canadian Press).—A convention of representatives of all labor organizations connected with the Canadian National and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway in Winnipeg, will take place here in the course of the next few days.

This is the first action to be taken as the result of the dismissal of A. E. Moore, M.L.A., for Springfield, by the Canadian National Railway Company, in accordance with the recent political order issued by the president, D. B. Hanna. A this convention a plan of action will be outlined and the question taken up whether larger convention including points outside Winnipeg, will be needed.

There will also be a meeting tonight of the Winnipeg district command of the Great War Veterans, called for the purpose of considering the dismissal of Mr. Moore, who is president of the command.

The accident occurred when, so it appears, Cullinan tried to cross from the south to the north side of the bridge in front of the approaching automobile, and it is believed he became perplexed as to the course to take and tried to get in between two cars.

The symbolic gold stripe worn on the left cuff was everywhere in evidence in the Canadian detachment. "Canucks Went Thru Hell."

"Those Canadians certainly did go thru one hell," remarked a veteran of 1861, who, too late for the parade, stood at attention at Jefferson and Woodward avenues.
