DROWNS WHILE SKATING.

Montreal, Dec. 27.—Returning to his home after skating on the River Chateauguay, at Chateauguay, Luovic Farent, 13 years of age, of Chateauguay, slipped down the steep bank into a spot in the river which was not frozen and was drowned.

The holiday spirit is over the live stock activities locally and thruout the Dominion with the result that business resterday was practically at a standstill at the Union Stock Yards. The run of cattle, sheep and hogs was exceedingly light, and little business was transacted.
