LATE LOCALS

The monthly business meeting of The King's Daughters will be held at the Guild on Friday at 3.30 p. m.

Battle line steamer Maninosa, Captain Wright will go to sea tonight bound for Belfast, Ireland, with a large cargo of deals.

Furness steamship St. John City, Captain Scott, sailed this morning for London and Havre via Halifax, with a general cargo. At Halifax the steamer will take on board a large shipment of apples.

The steamer Camden has been withdrawn from the Boston route for the winter months. The Calvin Austin and Governor Cobb will run alternate trips to this port.

The north end police have succeeded in discovering the names of three lads, by one of whom little Harry Webster was shot on Thursday last. The boys were traced by the cartridge of the bullet which went through the little fellow's leg.

Samuel McCord, member of the Newman Brook Quoit Club, left this morning for Amherst where he has accepted a position with Oates & Co., clothing of that town. Last evening he was presented by his club mates with a handsome dress suit case and an address.

R. A. Lawlor, of Chatham, was in the city last evening on his way home from Fredericton, where he had been before the local government relative to getting a grant for an exhibition to be held in Chatham next year. Chatham will get a $4,000 grant and a $1,000 guarantee.

Joseph A. Lane, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Lane and a companion named C. Davis of Newton Highlands, Mass., were drowned while fishing in Crystal Lake, Newton Centre, on Tuesday. Both bodies were recovered.
The Lane family had their furniture stored and their tickets purchased preparatory to moving to St. John.

George A. Higgins, a carpenter, met with a serious accident yesterday while working on the roof of the moulding shop of the Phoenix Foundry. Higgins fell from the roof to the ground, a distance of about thirty feet, and was killed. The injured man was removed to the hospital, and at an early hour this morning was reported to be resting easily.

Thomas Malcolm, the contractor, who is building the International Railway from Campbellton to St. Leonards, is at the Royal, accompanied by his wife and her sister, Mrs. McKay. Mr. Malcolm said that it was probable the work would be completed next fall. The weather was unfavorable, there being so much rain, or it would have been finished this year.
Scarcity of labor also figured in the situation. Construction work was being carried on at both ends, St. Leonards and Campbellton.

A telegram was received last evening by R. A. Johnston, foreman of the Sun-press room, telling of the death of his brother-in-law, W. H. Eaton, of the firm of W. H. Eaton & Co., of Montreal. Mr. Eaton was well known in this city, being the first foreman of the Sun compassing room. His wife, who was a sister of Mrs. Johnston, died last March.
Mr. Eaton is survived by five sons and one daughter. Mrs. W. A. Moore, widow of the late treasurer of Portland, is the sister of deceased. Mr. Eaton was about sixty-nine years old. Many in St. John will be sorry to learn of his death.

THE SHORE LINE
SHOOTING CASE

First Hearing Held Yesterday Afternoon—Codispotti on the Stand.

The case of Antonio Codispotti against Antonio Chetkaro and Antonio Gauteri for shooting and cutting with intent to murder, came up in the police court yesterday afternoon. This case arises from the shooting affray at Nigier Brook on the N. B. Southern Railway.

Chris Nichols was on hand to act as interpreter and Hon. H. A. McKeown acted in behalf of the crown. Chetkaro had been arrested in the hospital some days ago and Gauteri was taken in charge there yesterday.

The charge was read over and interpreted to the two defendants, who pleaded not guilty. Codispotti was then placed on the stand. He said that he saw Chetkaro with a revolver in his hand but could not affirm that it was he that shot him in the neck. He was asked if he was cut with a knife, and replied yes and identified Gauteri as the man who used the weapon on him. He explained further that there had been considerable drinking going on. He said he had no wish to prosecute.

All were remanded to jail, and another hearing will be at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
Codispotti is held as a witness and before him that he would be held in jail for ever unless he told the truth. He appeared to be duly impressed by the threat.

A SOCIAL EVENING

The social evening of the rally week in German street Baptist church last evening proved very successful. About 300 attended and all enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The time was spent in a social way, and care was taken to avoid a formal programme. Rev. W. McMasters, the pastor, spoke a few words of welcome and the following took part in an impromptu programme: Miss Katie Cuthers, C. H. Watson, Mrs. G. W. Currie and Miss Maud Watson. The ladies had charge of dainty refreshments which were served from a prettily decorated table, during the evening.

A coincidence in connection with last night's gathering was that it was the first anniversary of the reception given to the pastor and his wife on their coming to St. John in 1906.

The rally meetings will continue through the week and on Sunday the service will all be of a special nature. On Friday the rally of the conference meeting will be held.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mildred Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Maxwell Harris, Crescent street, Montreal, to J. Simon, of Halifax, N. S.

THE EVERY DAY CLUB

Preparations for the Opening on Monday Evening Next—No
Boys Admitted This Year.

The Every Day Club will be open next Monday evening, and every evening thereafter. There will be no special programme at the opening. On Sunday evening there will be sacred concerts, and on Sunday afternoon temperance meetings.

The active members are busy this week completing arrangements for the succe-ful conduct of the club. As a result of the experience of the winter, and developments during the summer, much less latitude will be given to the disturbing element of liquor, and boys will be excluded altogether. The club desires to be of service to all men, and to command the respect and aid of sober men. While the rooms will be open to all men who conduct themselves properly, only those who are really in earnest and in sympathy with the club's motto will be selected to become active members.

Already this fall the club has responded to one appeal, and given substantial evidence of its desire to benefit those in need.
Any good reading matter for the club table will be gratefully received, and may be left at the grocery store of John H. Case, Waterloo street.

The committee also drew Dr. Pugsley's attention to the nearness of the dredging by Dominion No. 4 to North Rodney wharf.

WILL SEE SIR THOMAS

Matter of Supplying Grain to No.
5 Wharf Will Be Referred to C. P. R. Head.

At the conference between the minister of public works and the committee from the civic board of works yesterday afternoon, Hon. Mr. Pugsley agreed to lay the matter of providing grain to No.
5 wharf before Sir Thomas Slingsby.
This result was forecasted in yesterday's Times.

The committee also drew Dr. Pugsley's attention to the nearness of the dredging
by Dominion No. 4 to North Rodney
wharf.

Dr. Pugsley issued instructions that the work should be stopped there immediately and dredging be carried on only at such a distance from the wharf as the city engineers should direct.
