

POETRY.

ON THE QUEEN'S MARRIAGE.

BY JAMES MACGILLIVRAY. Ocean and land the globe divide, Summer and winter change the year, Darkness and light walk side by side, And earth and heaven are always near.

Through each be good and fair alone, And glorious, in its time and place, In all, when fifty pair, do shown, More of their Maker's power and grace.

Then may the union of young hearts, So early and so well begun, Like sea and shore, in all their parts, Appear as twin, but be as one.

Be it like summer, may they find, Blue beauty, hope, where'er they roam; Be it like winter, when confined, Peace, comfort, happiness at home.

Like day and night—sweet interchange Of care, enjoyment, action, rest; Coldness nor splendour e'er estrange Hearts by unfeeling love possess'd.

Like earth's horizon, be their scene Of life, a rich and varied ground; And, whether low or high be seen, Heaven all above it stand around.

"When laid and ocean, day and night, When time and nature cease to be, Be their inheritance in light, Their union one eternity."

HOPE DEFERRED.—"Go to bed, sir, in the closet there," said an engaged father to a son, who had given him just cause of offence.

"I will give you a sound whipping; but you shall have it before breakfast to-morrow, certain." The little rebel went to his crib with a heavy heart, and the enjoyments of the party continued until a late hour.

Just when the party was about to break up, the closet door was quietly pulled back, and the young offender put out his head, requesting that the sentence might be put in execution.

"Father, would you just give me my licks [whipping] this night, for I cannot sleep without them!" (The Laird of Logan.)

FUSTIAN.—A young gentleman having occasion to ask a lady for the snuffers across the table, addressed her in the following emphatic and ennobled strain:—"Most beautiful, accomplished, and charming lady, will your ladyship, by an unmerited and undeserved condescension of your infinite goodness, please to extend to your most obedient, devoted and very humble servant, that pair of ignipotent digesters, that I may exasperate the excrecences of this nocturnal erysipelous luminary, in order that the refulgent brightness of its resplendent brilliancy may dazzle the vision of our ocular optics more potently."
