U.S. POSITION RE ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

Washington, Jan. 26—Indications were given in official circles today that the U. S. is adverse to participation in a general European economic conference, should such a meeting be held at the content of the content o time set for the Genoa gathering, but would look with more favor on a conference to be held at a later date.

SYNOD COMMITTEES

This morning at the Church of England Institute several of the synod committee met to discuss routine business in preparation for a meeting of the executive this afternoon. The standing committee was presided over by Dean S. Neales of Fredericton. The other committees which met this morning were the committee on statistics, standing of the church and the social service council.

IN WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 26—(10.30.)—Bull pools resumed their operations in special issues at the opening of today's stock exchange. Crucible, American Agriculture Chemical and Famous Players made one point gains. Sugar and other food specialties were fractionally higher with oils and motors. Gulf States Steel, yesterday's most unstable feature, rallied moderately, but Electric Storage, Battery eased with Anaconda Copper and American Writing Paper preferred. The market improved within the first half hour on buying of Studebaker and Davison Chemical and Texas and Pacific.

New York, Jan. 26.—(Noon) The market failed to hold, prices breaking very generally in the first hour, although local money was offered at 4½ per cent. a fraction under yesterday's opening rate. Studebaker reacted one point, Davison Chemical 2½, and Independent Steels 1 to 2 points. Bethlehem was an exception, its firmness being associated with the forthcoming publication of the company's final report for 1921. Coppers, motors and oils became heavy, Standard Oil of New Jersey falling four points. Rails reacted, Reading declining one point under steady pressure, the reversal extending to other coalers.
