

"I ATTRIBUTE MY CURE SOLELY

And Entirely to Taking "Fruitatives"

Hul, Que., Dec. 24th, 1909. "For the past twelve years, I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. I could not digest my food and everything caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation, and at times I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks. Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicine but did me no good. My weight came to only 80 pounds and everyone thought I was going to die. Finally, I had the good fortune to try "Fruitatives" and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy, I steadily improved. Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds, and this is more than I ever weighed even before my illness. I attribute my cure solely and entirely to "Fruitatives" and can never praise them too much for saving my life. To all who suffer from Dyspepsia and Constipation, I recommend "Fruitatives" as a miraculous remedy. MRS. ANDREW STAFFORD, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. THE MASHER SWOONS AT THE SENTENCE

Given Ten Days Without Option of Fine for Accosting Pretty Governess

New York, Oct. 22—Sentenced to the workhouse for ten days because he had persistently followed a young woman, a well-dressed man who described himself as John Butler, thirty-two years old, of Brooklyn, collapsed as he was being taken to a cell, and was later removed to Bellevue Hospital. Butler was arrested on the complaint of Miss Alice McGuire, twenty-four years old, a pretty governess. Miss McGuire told Magistrate Home that Butler had accosted her on a Flatbush avenue car and although she had made it obvious she wanted none of his attentions, she said he followed her to the subway. She boarded a subway train, she testified and then changed her seat from car to car because the man persistently followed her and tried to persuade her to engage in conversation with him.

THE AWAKENING GRUNT OF THE TORY HOG LIKE A BANSHEE'S WAIL IN AN IRISH BOG

Sounds the Warning Out to the Tory Factions To Note the Liberals' Scandalous Actions — The County Elections Have Taken Their Breath and the Moncton Healers Are Scared to Death

(Moncton Transcript) The awakening grunt of the Tory Hog, like a Banshee's wail in an Irish bog, sounds the warning out to the Tory factions to note the Liberals' scandalous actions. The Tory press now admits their losses; that the people routed the Tory bosses, and The Times arises to take a cup from an "individual drinking cup." The county elections have taken their breath and the Moncton healers are scared to death. The Tory hopes continue to fall, for they see their doom on the club-room wall. They thought the county was all their own; could elect whom they pleased, whom they pleased dethrone; but they brought their autos and "asthma cure" just to make assurance doubly sure—the autos to bring the people up to the "individual drinking cup." They determined to wage, in spite of the rain, a vigorous polling-day campaign, and the only doubt there appeared to be was the size of the Tory majority. But they found, alas, that the people rule; that the common plebe may not be a fool; that the Westmorland voters have not forgotten that "Tory rule is simply rotten. A painter or so showed up that day to even up for his curtailed pay; and the Tory bosses got many a jar through the state of things on the I. C. R. And the "asthma cure" would not work as it did when the booze was stored 'neath the coffin's lid, in the good old days, when to own his soul, the toiler must buy his clothes from C.—E. They knew from the cheers which shook the rafters that the people are through with the Tory grafters. Just at present the "bosses" are knocked right out by the size and strength of the Liberal vote. When the Tory Old Guard meets again, it should dance the tango and sing this strain:—

"Oh, whither shall we turn for aid? Whatever can we do? 'Doc' P.—E. is jumping on our necks. The Party's split in two! The individual drinking cups Have proved a farce, by heck! 'The Boys' would sooner take their booze Right at the bottle's neck. We said we'd trim the I. C. R. And make 'The Boys' all glad But B.—E.'s still right on the job. A-wielding of the gad! Not only that, we've given him A fine-old house and shed, And fixed 'em up and painted 'em A nice, bright hand-car red! And C. P. R. officials we've Imported by the score— No matter if they never saw A piece of track before. We'd better swipe just all we can For say—this ain't no joke!— When next election day comes round 'The Party's goin' to croak!" J. B. KING.

THINKS IT NOT WELL THAT MEN BE SENT TO PRISON

Bill Dealing With Penal Reform to Be Introduced in British Commons. London, Eng., Oct. 22—Mr. McKenna, in a speech at Pontnewynydd, promised a bill dealing with penal reform for next session. One of its main objects will be to avoid as far as possible sending any one to prison in default of paying a fine. Mr. McKenna said: "The total number of persons received into prison last year for every kind of offence throughout the country was just under 151,000. This is a startling total, the only satisfactory feature about which is that it is a far smaller proportion of the population than in any preceding year. Ten years ago, out of every 100,000 of the population 668 went to prison. Last year the corresponding figure was 418. Of the total of 151,000 persons received into prison, about 80,000, or more than one-half, were committed in default of paying a fine. That is a large number. There is room here for reform on a large scale. Every one will agree that where the

BOY'S FOOT BADLY SCALDED

Mother Says Zam-Buk Acted Like Magic!

Mrs. E. Capell, 81 Sydney Street Hamilton, tells how beautiful Zam-Buk proved in her family. She writes: "My little boy, aged one and a half years, put his foot into a pot of boiling water. The foot was so badly scalded that the skin came off with his stocking, and he had a shocking scald, from instep to toes. "I at once sent for a supply of Zam-Buk, and as soon as this was applied, it seemed to act like magic and gave him ease. It was good to tell that Zam-Buk stopped the pain, because up to applying it I had to nurse the child all the time, but soon after I applied Zam-Buk he was anxious to get on the floor and go on with his play! "I only used four boxes of Zam-Buk, so I consider this the best investment I ever made. I believe Zam-Buk would have cured the scald even more quickly had the boy been lying more Zam-Buk time, but after beginning with Zam-Buk it made the sore so easy that he was soon on his feet and playing about again. "I might also tell you that my next boy to him, aged five years, had some bad broken chilblains. We used Zam-Buk on these, also, and cured them. For sores of any kind I shall in future use only Zam-Buk." Housekeepers everywhere speak similarly of Zam-Buk. It is a sure cure for eczema, rashes, ringworm, chapped hands, scurvy, heat rashes, cuts, burns, ulcers, discharging sores, abscesses, piles, inflammation, itching and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c box, all druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. For skin diseases use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

TYPHOID PATIENT LEAPED TO DEATH FROM WINDOW OF NEW GLASGOW HOSPITAL

Leo T. Joy, aged 25, belonging to Sydney, met an untimely end at Aberdeen Hospital, New Glasgow, on Sunday evening. He was a typhoid fever patient in the institution, and when the nurse was momentarily absent from his room he left the bed, discarded his night clothes and leaped head first from the window. He fell twenty-five feet. Although conscious when picked up, he died a few minutes later from the effects of the shock. He was an employee of the electrical department of the Nova Scotia Steel works. There were thirteen typhoid cases in the hospital, and several were more seriously ill than the deceased. Fifty and seventy-five per cent. are big dividends, are they not? Relief for Catarrh Sufferers Now FREE

You Can Now Treat This Trouble in Your Own Home and Get Relief at Once.

How the Remedy for Catarrh Was Discovered.

THIS terrible disease has raged unchecked for years simply because symptoms have been treated while the vicious germs that cause the trouble have been left to circulate in the blood, and bring the disease back as fast as local treatment could relieve it. C. E. GAUSS, who experimented for years on a treatment for Catarrh, found that after perfecting a balm that relieved the nose and throat troubles quickly, he could not prevent the trouble beginning all over again. On test cases, he could completely remove all signs of Catarrh from nose and throat, but in a few weeks they were back.

Kills the Germs in the Blood and immediately gives relief to the nose and throat.

Careful experiments and investigations have shown that as the troubles were expelled from the nose and throat, the real cause of the disease was overlooked and in a short time the Catarrh would return stronger than ever. Gauss has gone very ahead of the ordinary methods of treatment and has provided a remedy that
