MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

A branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia has been established at Bath, Carleton County.

John Krafenke, arrested in Winnipeg yesterday on a charge of murdering H. M. Arnold, a former Sussex man, at Plum Coulee, Man., last week, and he had not intended to shoot him. He made a confession to the chief of police. Part of the money stolen from the bank, about $12,500, has been recovered. Some of it is stained with blood.

For the first time in forty years the earnings of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway Co. have not been sufficient to meet the charges and be dividend upon the $167,000,000 of stock has been suspended. This decision is reached yesterday at a meeting of the directors.

Alfred Stuart of Harvey was painfully burned yesterday when his clothes caught fire from a torch which he was using in a barn where he had gone to start a gasoline engine, in connection with a hay press. His clothes were saturated with gasoline, and they became ignited. Before his companions, Hyland Peck and Howard Kever, could strip the clothes from his body he was badly burned.

The schooner Laura M. Lunt, drifting helplessly at sea off the New England coast with her sails in ribbons and her deck load of lumber torn away, has asked the assistance of the revenue cutter service.

Premier McBride yesterday refused to accede to the request of the United Suffrage Societies of British Columbia that a suffrage bill be introduced. He said the matter would have to be brought up by a private member.

Build a Reserve Fund
WE believe it to be good business for every man to build up a strong Reserve Fund. A bank starts building up its Reserve Fund the first year it is in business, and its example is a good one for you to follow.

Since 1822 we have provided the public a safe place for their funds. Our Savings Accounts will allow 3% interest, compounded twice a year.
