The Classes in Law will commence on Monday the First of October, 1877, and will extend to March 31st, 1878.

The Lectures of the Faculty will close on Friday the 1st of March, 1878, and the Examinations will be held in the William Molson Hall, McGill College Building, from 3 to 6 p. m., on the 7th, 8th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, and 15th days of March, 1878.

The Lecture Rooms of the Faculty are situated in the Molson's Bank Chambers, in St. James Street

The complete course of study in this Faculty extends over three years ; but it may be shortened to two years, when the student matriculates in the third year of his indentures.

Students who avail themselves of the privilege of attending two years only, will nevertheless be required to pass an examination in the subjects comprised in the three years' course.

Matriculated Students who do not take the whole course are classed as Partial Students, and are not entitled to proceed to the Degree of B. C. L.

Occasional Students will be received without matriculation, for attendance on any particular series of Lectures.

Students who have completed their course of three years,—or of two years, if they have commenced in the third year of their
