FOR DISARMAMENT.

Russia and Italy Are Moving in That Direction.

ROME, Aug. 3.—With regard to the statement in the despatches under date of July 12, that one of the principal questions of discussion between King Victor Emmanuel and the Czar of Russia, upon the occasion of the former's visit to St. Petersburg would be the reduction of armaments, the Associated Press now learns that King Victor Emmanuel's visit to Emperor William at Berlin, the latter part of this month, is intended to continue this same work in the direction of reaching an international understanding in the matter of reduced armaments, the King of Italy having been encouraged in his determination in this matter by the Czar, who is ready to re-assume the leadership of the movement. According to information received from an authoritative source the sovereign referred to argue that the time of European wars is almost over, as their interests are so great in other continents that it is not worth while to fight for a strip of land here and there in Europe. Consequently the large armaments which are now intended for European conflicts might be reduced or transformed for the defence of colonial interests, the gain being devoted to the improvement of commerce and industry and for a collective fight against the common danger—American competition.

QUARANTINE QUARREL.

Sheriff and Armed Deputies Will Enforce the Regulations.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Aug. 4.—The village of Knightstown, five miles west of here, was in the hands of a mob for several hours last night and the sheriff of Hancock County, with 75 armed deputies, is on the scene. The trouble arose from an attempt to prevent the running of it's cars by the Indianapolis and Eastern Traction Co. Recently a quarantine was established by Hancock County, against the city, on account of the smallpox here. The Traction Company stopped running its cars until yesterday. When an effort was made to resume the police of Knightstown stopped the second car, arrested the motorman and conductor and sidetracked the car. Later other cars were run through the town and late last night a car was assailed by a fusillade of shots from the guards and villagers, and C. M. Kirkpatrick, one of the directors, and several other passengers were hurt.
The sheriff of Hancock County with the armed deputies has been sent to the scene to enforce the quarantine.

WILD SHOOTING.

Missed the Criminal But Wounded a Woman.

(Special to the Star.)
MONTREAL, Aug. 4.—Last night Constables Trudeau and Gavan were sent out to arrest Dennis Murphy, wanted for assault. They found him and a chase ensued. While it was in progress Trudeau pulled his revolver and fired in the air. Murphy returned the fire and Trudeau again fired twice. This time both shots took effect. Murphy was not hit, but Mrs. Priu, sitting in her doorway on Pine avenue was hit. One bullet struck her in the arm and the other in the leg. She was removed to a hospital where she is doing well. Murphy escaped.

AN ONTARIO CYCLONE.

Great Damage Yesterday in Town of St. Catharines.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 3.—This place was struck by a small cyclone this afternoon, which, though it cost no lives, did a large amount of damage to buildings, wires, fences and trees. The storm started at Welland Avenue and moved down Court and Geneva streets. The end of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Thorold Railway Co.'s car-barn was blown out and a freight car standing in the yards blown off its trucks. The roofs were taken off a large number of residences and barns. The Bell telephone wires are down, as are the feed wires of the street railway system.

RECEIVED NO WORD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—William Zeigler, who supplied the funds for the Baldwin Arctic expedition, said to the Associated Press today that the statement that he has received advices from Baldwin is untrue. He has had no despatches from the explorer since his reported arrival at Honningsvaad and he is even inclined to be skeptical of the report that Baldwin has returned.

FAIRVILLE NOTES.

Interesting Personal Items—The Suburban and Bus Services.

W. Easton was in Fairville last week visiting at Mrs. Legman's. Mr. Easton has been living in Pennsylvania for about 21 years, and his return home was a great surprise to his friends, who did not know him. He went up to the home of his parents at Welsford on Monday last. Mr. Easton is a machinist, and has worked for the same firm for the whole of the time of his absence from here.

Word was received from Rev. Dr. Barker to the effect that he was compelled to break his engagement here for the present. Hence the pastor preached in the Methodist church yesterday.

The financial district meeting of the St. John district meets in the Methodist church tomorrow, Tuesday, at 9.30. Rev. Frank Frizzle, of Montague, P. E. I., was in Fairville on Saturday on his way from Jerusalem, Queens Co., where he had been with Mrs. Frizzle and the children, who are going to spend a few weeks at the home of her parents. Mr. Frizzle went up by the boat to Springfield to spend Sunday with his former parishioners on that field.

It is reported that the picnic grounds at Ashland Farm on the Kennebecasis, where the Methodist Sunday school goes for its annual outing on Thursday, are excellent from every standpoint. The sports are very elaborate and the prizes to be given will be tempting to the contestants. It seems too bad that the Methodists and Baptists had to have the same dates for their picnics, but it was entirely unintended and the boat arrangements made it impossible to change. The Baptists will go to the well known point, Waters' Landing.

A large number of people gathered at the Suspension Bridge on Saturday to witness the arrival of the volunteers for the sham fight. The shower of rain, however, made a scatteration of those who were unprepared to stay.

Mrs. James Wilson and daughter, who have been visiting at the Methodist parsonage, will return to St. Stephen on Tuesday or Wednesday after spending a few days with Mrs. David Irvine, North End, sister of Mrs. Wilson.

A newly planked sidewalk from the Pleasant Point ferry up to Milford makes walking very much pleasanter for the pedestrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson have resigned from the Sextonship of the Methodist church, after faithful service of a year or two.

William Long, who has been up country surveying lumber, has returned to his home on Main street.

Mrs. T. F. Wilson is spending a few weeks' vacation up river.

The idea of a Fairville-Carleton intermediate points suburban seems to be quite popular. The next need is a rate to make it popular with those who would rather go to the city that way if it could be as reasonable, or nearly so, as the electric car. The station here is much more convenient for those who live beyond the town than the present stopping place of the motor car. Some think that the Welsford suburban would accommodate the business men on the business streets of the city if it ran to Carleton as well as the Union Depot. As is said by many—when you get over by the ferry you're in the heart of the city without an electric car.

The next improvement Fairville needs, and needs in the worst way, is a new post office building. Tourists and strangers laugh when they see the mean looking building we have for a post office. Surely a place as large as Fairville and doing the business it does, demands better accommodation. The attention of the authorities for their own good credit should be called to this matter. Let us have a building and post office we need not be ashamed to show to our visitors.

We notice the bus drivers are far more accommodating than formerly, as they seem willing to drive you right home to your residence for the same fare. One or two buses meeting the cars at the bridge, if it was known they would be there, would probably do as much business as before the cars ran to that point. It takes but five minutes for the cars to get out, and buses starting from that place would be able to land their passengers much quicker at their homes.

EDITOR AT LIBERTY.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 2.—Wm. McAdams, editor of the Sandon Pay-streak, who was committed to jail for nine months for an attack on the members of the supreme court, was discharged yesterday after a severe lecture from Chief Justice Hunter.

A PHILOSOPHER.

"Kill and Burn" Smith Takes His Medicine Like a Soldier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—General Jacob M. Smith, who returned last Friday from Manila, said today:—"I naturally supposed that I would receive a reprimand as a result of the verdict of the court martial, but nothing more. I have always tried to do my duty in a conscientious manner and conduct myself as a soldier. The names of Samar are nothing but savages and, of course, cannot be treated like civilized people. They all would resort to most barbarous methods of warfare at times. Instances of torture and slaughter of American soldiers are very numerous. Any one of my command knows that they were not unduly severe with the natives. I have always tried to conduct my campaigns according to military regulations.
"There is no use asking me to talk about other things. It would not be military. I am a soldier and take what is coming to me. It is not for me to say whether I deserve or not. I have done what I thought was right and am ready to settle down in quiet."

THE DEATH PENALTY.

A New York Murderer Dies in the Electric Chair.

OSSENING, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Aaron Halle was put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison today for the murder of Mrs. McCarthy, whom he shot and killed in a New York department store on May 17, 1900.
The electric current was applied at 6.03 a. m. and seven minutes later Halle was pronounced dead. Halle, who was a bartender, killed his sweetheart, because she refused to marry him. He sought her at her work for a final interview. He was seen to whisper to her and she replied: "No, no." Then Halle drew a revolver and fired several times. After she fell he calmly awaited arrest. The case was carried on technically to the United States supreme court. A final appeal was made to Governor Odell for a commutation of sentence, on the ground that Halle was insane at the time the crime was committed, but the application was denied.

A GENTLEMAN BURGLAR.

Who Gathered in Other People's Property For Amusement.

CHESTER, V. T., Aug. 3.—A partial confession by Clarence Adams, the gentleman burglar of this town, today, covering incidents of the past six years, added to the excitement over this case and furnished more material for discussion. Adams had his legs peppered with buckshot one night last week, and while he claimed that he had been held up on the road and shot, his statements today prove that he got in line with a set gun in the grain mill of Charles Waterman, while trying to make an entrance. The breaks to which he confessed go back only six years and he has said that he began breaking into places about 15 years ago. When he was asked why he did these acts he made the single reply, "for amusement."

CALLED TO ARMS.

Attacks on the Troops at Shenandoah—Situation Critical

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Aug. 3.—The Eighth Regiment was called to arms during last night as a result of three attacks made by a band of men in ambush, who threw stones at the troops now in camp on the plateau outside the town. The sentries have been instructed that if last night's storm throwing is repeated they must shoot to kill and investigate afterwards. One of the attacking party, a Lithuanian, is under arrest.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Aug. 4.—The Eighth Regiment had another call to arms last night. A picket near the stables seeing a man stealthily approaching the horses, commanded him to stop. The instant he heard the command he fled down the side of the hill. Three bullets were sent after him by the pickets but he escaped. A sentry on the next post also saw a man running in the direction and he too fired. The shooting aroused the guard, and the call to arms was immediately sounded. The whole regiment was quickly in line and Company H was sent out to investigate, but the persons had escaped. After that the men were not again disturbed. Col. Hoffman thinks that the men were about to hamstring the horses or otherwise injure them. The arrest of several men who took part in the riots of last week was made today. The funeral of Joseph Beddl, who was killed in last week's disorder, took place today.

RAILWAY DISASTER.

Passenger Train Crashes Into an Oil Train on the Santa Fe.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 4.—A Santa Fe passenger train returning from Redondo Beach last night, ran through an open switch and crashed into an oil train. Both engines were wrecked as was also one coach and four oil tank cars. The fuel tank of one of the engines exploded immediately after the crash, setting fire to the wreck. Burning oil was scattered in every direction and the large oil refinery plant of the Combs Refining Co. was set on fire. The plant was destroyed as were all the cars in the wreck, except one. T. D. Martin, fireman of the freight engine, is missing, and it is thought his body is under the wreckage. A passenger and three of the train's crew were injured.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 4.—John P. Greeley, an aged retired merchant, died here Sunday evening, after an illness of three days, caused by eating green vegetables and drinking iced water. Dr. Briggs, who was called to attend Greeley, says the case was without doubt one of Asiatic cholera. No fear is felt of any other cases resulting from infection, as all precautions have been taken.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., Aug. 4.—During a severe electric storm last night lightning struck the house of Thomas Jansen, near Monticello, killing Jansen and shocking four other members of his family into insensibility. The house was shattered. Jansen was 33 years old.
