Fine Tailored, Ready-to-Wear Clothing

Fresh from the hands of a skilled corps of tailors has come the cream of our clothing, the elegant, fine-tailored suits and overcoats that are made up for us by the 20th Century Brand people. It is the only clothing that has incorporated within it the qualities of expensive custom-tailored clothing, and is yet sold at pepular prices. The superb fall stock will be at its best this

MILITARY DRILL

FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Sir Frederick Borden's New Scheme-Would Have School Teachers Qualifled to Give Millitary Instructions.

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.-Sir Frederick Borden returned to the city today. Being interviewed he said: "I found a splendid spirit everywhere we went, without any exception. Cana dians from the east and from the west and old country people vieing with each other everywhere in their enthusiasm. There is any amount of material in the west just waiting for the opportunity to be enrolled in the active militia for the defence of Canadian integrity.

"As the mounted police are withdrawn from active duty as they have been doing in the districts which have now been settled and which withdrawal, I suppose, will immediately take place, the active militia must be increased in numbers and depots of the permanent force established as teaching depots and centres.

"One thing I did when out in the west was to discuss with the governments of Manitoba and British Columbia the question of co-operation with the militia department to bring about physicial training in the schools, beginning at the very beginning of the boy's capital tool for either amateur education to educate the body as well practical mechanic. No reasonable of-as the mind. I found both governments most sympathetic and prepared to co-operate, and I am most hopeful brass connections for testing steam that we will be able to get together boilers or water pipes up to 140 lbs. that we will be able to get together boilers and agree upon some plan to be adopt- Price $3.00.
