Champion Light Weight Wrestler Here

Mike Sullivan Defeated Gardner.

Todays Big Game.

LIGHT WEIGHT CHAMPION.

Joe Gilbert, the champion light weight wrestler of the United tSates, arrived in the city yesterday and will remain here for some days. He intends to witness the bout in the York Theatre next Tuesday night between George Schnable and Emile Maupas, and says he is willing to meet any of the big wrestlers in a handicap match, catch as catch cas style, or will take anyone else in any style of wrestling. Gilbert is a likely loking chap, and last night wrestled with Schnable for twenty minutes at the Neptune Club rooms, making a decidedly favorable impression. He has met and won over such well known wrestlers as George Bothner, Harvey Parker, Leo Par-dello, Harris Harris, Prof. Chic Lucas, and stayed fifteen minutes with Tom INTERREST IN THE GREAT GAME. BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 24.—Boston and Cambridge tonight were tossing with impatience on the eve of the an annual football battle between Harvard and Yale. It has been many years since interest in a game between the two universities has reached the pitch manifested tonight and those who have followed Harvard and Yale through thirty years of football relations, feel that conditions seldom have been better for a great exhibition. The agitation ever football as played at present, led by President Roosevelt and President Blot of Harvard, as well as Yale's record of victories this year, the force withdrawal of Capt. when Fitzsimmons fought Gardner here more than a year ago, his showing was not very encouraging. In fact, he was a big disappointment, and it was considered one of Fitzsimmons' luckiest fights. Fitzsimmons, however, claimed at the time that his poor showing was due to a cold which he contracted while training.

Desperate Attempt to Escape From Penitentiary.

Five Prisoners Murdered Guards and Blow Open Gate-Recaptured After Desperate Fight.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 24.—
In a desperate attempt to escape from the state penitentiary this afternoon five convicts fought for freedom at the prison gate, killing two guards and wounded Warden See. Four of the men made a dash through the streets of Jefferson City under fire, only to be captured after two of them had been wounded. Five prisoners, taking advantage of the absence of Warden Hall and six guards, who left today with 71 federal prisoners for Fort Leavenworth, attempted to escape, but only four left the prison after killing the guards.

Some of the convicts, Harry Vaughan, the prison after killing the guards.
Some of the convicts, Harry Vaughan,
Charles Raymond, Chas. Black, George

Then, as if to signal the convicts generally that an attempt to escape had been started, the convicts rang the gate bell and rushed through, dragging Clay's body with them. They slammed the gate shut and fastened it. While Liegler was ringing the bell he was left inside. The convicts placed nitro glycerine under the outside gate and blew an opening through the steel doors. The four men crawled through this rupture and dashed past a number of 'trusty' convicts who were working in

Almost before the four escaped convicts had covered a block, prison officers were in pursuit, shooting as they ran.

Pedestrians jumped behind trees, ran into houses and crouched down behind hay obstruction that gave refuge from the bullets. Several men seized weapons and joined the prison officers in the pursuit. The chase kept on for a dozen blocks, the convicts outrunning their pursuers. Near the Missouri Pacific rallway depot the convicts came up with a wagon driven by Orville Lane. Jumping into the wagon the the desperadoes seized Lane and threw him from the wagon, One convict lashed the horse into a run and escape seemed sure, when suddenly a squad of city policemen and armed citizens appeared in front of the fleeing men, who stopped the horse and made a despertopped the horse and made a desperate stand.

The four convicts fought the policemen from the wagon. Volley after volley was fired in the street by both sides, while residents and pedestrians were panic stricken. The policemen, sheltering themselves behind trees, splintered the wagon and ploughed up the mud, finally putting a bullet through the wagon and Black, the latter falling to the ground.

Then the convicts surrendered, much to the relief of the residents. The con-victs were immediately taken back to

EOLD ATTEMPT AT

BANK ROBBERY.

BUFFALO, N. Y. Nov. 24—A bold attempt was made to rob the Traders Bank of Bridgeburg, a village on the Canadian side of the Niagara River, opposite Buffalo early today. A sang of six to eight men, after fastening all the doors of nearby houses with ropes, them secured a heavy timber and proceeded to batter in the front door of the bank. Ralph C. Young, an 13 year old boy, was the only person in the bank when the robbers opened their attack. Armed with a revolver he went to an upper window and opened fire upon the thieves. They replied with revolvers and shotguns. With his face streaming with blood from shattered glass and splinters of wood, caused by the fusilade from the street, Young kept the robbers back. Finally alaymed by a shot from up the street, the thieves fied.
