he never rallied. He is survived by one

BONNEY RIVER.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McKay, of Second Falls, gave a delightful supper on the 18th in honor of their guests, Mrs.
Haberstick and little daughter of Woonsocket, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McKay of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor and daughter Doris, of Boston, who were returning the following day to their city homes accompanied by Miss Myrtle Williamson and Mr. Herbert McKay.
Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs.
Geo. McKay and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hanson and daughter Rena, and Mr. W. Hanson of Penfield and Mrs. E. W. Wheeler of Woonsocket.
The excellent supper proved Mrs.
McKay as usual, and adept in the culinary art, and the evening was unavoidably detained but no doubt was fairly well compensated for the loss of his supper by the fine large moose he was fortunate enough to secure, it being a fitting trophy of his native country to carry back to Hartford, U. S.

COLLINS' FOUND GUILTY

Hopewell, Cape, Sept. 14.—At the resumption of Collins trial this morning His Honor Judge Hanington delivered a most lengthy and impartial charge to the jury after reviewing all the facts brought out in the evidence and pointing out the law affecting the case.
The jury retired at about ten minutes to eleven o'clock this morning and about half past three returned. When in reply to the usual questions by the court they returned a verdict against Thomas Collins of being guilty of the murder of Mary Ann McKilley. The prisoner will be sentenced by the court at four o'clock this afternoon.

An Indian's Teeth.

"Nobody ever saw an Indian with bad teeth," remarked J. S. Miller of the One Hundred and One ranch. "Do you know why?" he continued. "Just this: Because they eat no sweets of any kind, they restrict themselves to simple food, and they live out of doors.
When we first started out with these wild west shows every fall I thought inasmuch as the trip was intended as a sort of outing, to give my Indians a touch of high life by putting them up at hotels.
They were thoroughly unhappy and nearly starved on the small portions of various dishes. They could not touch the sweets nor eat anything fried. So now we let them do their own cooking which is very simple. They boil great quantities of meat, and a big helping of this, with bread and coffee, is all an Indian wants.
"There are Indians on the One Hundred and One ranch so old that nobody can tell their age. They may show every mark of extreme age, but every one has all his teeth and they are sound and firm."

Tuesday by about thirty young people of Mrs. Chas. Richardson. At the close half of the company, presented Mr.

Richardson with a dainty scarf pin, and in a few well chosen words, assured him

MACES BAY

MACE'S BAY, N. B., Sept. 23.—The service in Trinity Church yesterday morning chanced, happily, to be of threefold interest, viz.: The harvest festival, the Foresters' annual service, and a baptism.
The ladies of the congregation had decorated the pretty little church with a profusion of flowers, fruit and vegetables.
The floral display was especially beautiful, appropriate and impressive, and rendered by the choir. Afterward the remains of the harvest were sent to the rick of the neighborhood, and the remainder distributed among the children of the Sunday school. The guests were a gift to the rector, the Rev. J. R.
Martin, from William Brown.
Court "West Wind," of the I. O. F., assembled in their new hall at 10 o'clock a.m., and after prayer by the rector, formed into rank and file and marched, in full regalia, to the church. The Rev.
Mr. Martin, in his forceful and telling way presided over the words, "Sirs, ye are brethren," and the members of the court, assisted by the choir, sang, "Best be the Deaf that Blind." After the service they again formed into marching order and returned to the hall.
The floral point of interest in the service was the baptism of Mr. and Mrs. J.
T. McGowan's infant son, whom they named Arthur Gordon.

tion which they report as being very good.
