The government of the United States not only feels obliged to find that the Imperial German government regards itself as in large detected in seeing it made practicable to observe these principles, even where neutral vessels are concerned, by what it redieves the policy and practice of the government of Great Britain to be in the present war with regard to neutral commerce. The Imperial German government will readily understaind that the government of the Great Britain with regard to neutral trade the necessity for a scrupulous ob servance of neutral rights in this critical matter. Friendship itself prompts it to say to the Imperial government that repetition by the commanders of German naval vessels of acts in contravention of those rights must be regarded by the government of the United submarine operations as have characterized the activity of the Imperial German navy within the so-called war zone in substantial accord with accepted practices of regulated warfare. The whole world has looked with interest and increasing satisfaction at the demonstration of that possibility by German naval commanders. It is manifestly possible, therefore, to lift the whole practice of submarine attack above the criticism which it has arous ed and remove the chief causes of offense.

In view of the admission of illegality made by the Imperial government when it pleaded the right of retailation in defense of its acts, and in yiew of the manifest possibility of con-

Berlin, July 23. via_London.—Supplementing the denial made last night that a German warship had been sunk in the Baltic by a hostile submarine, the German Admiralty today authorized the statement that in the operations in question no battleship of the Deutschland type was attacked by a submarine, and that no German warship of any kind was sunk. The only loss during the operations was the Albatross, a mine-layer, it was stated.
