

PATH OF ECONOMY

Leads Straight to Mayhew's Door

OUR POLICY

Right is right. There is only one truth—only one square way—only one fair margin of profit—one way to serve the public. We stand for the right—for truth—for the square way of serving the community. Our buying power, ever increasing, is used to bring you a better quality of merchandise, the best value possible each season, relative to conditions. We take but a small, fair margin of profit for our service. Our salespeople like their treatment here, believe in the institution and the goods they sell—and no one here is ashamed to look a former customer in the face. We stand back of every article we sell, and when accidents happen—they are liable to "in the best of regulated families"—WE ALWAYS DO OUR PART.

Waists! Waists!

There will be no service in the Methodist church next Sunday being Conference Sunday.

Miss Dora Stewart is visiting in Melin this week.

John T. McLean shipped in a car of cement tile from Oil Springs this week.

Mr. Bees is improving his house by putting a basement under it.

MIDDLEMISS

Middlemiss Women's Institute met at "The Cottage," with a large attendance, considering the threatening appearance of the weather. In the absence of the president, the chair was taken by vice-president Mrs. Fallick.

The topic, "List of menus for a week in May," was to have been taken by Mrs. D. McDougald. Ways and means for the bazaar to be held on the 20th of June were discussed and a committee appointed. It was decided to invite the convention of next year to meet in Middlemiss, and a number of those present expressed their intention of attending the convention in Delaware. After some songs by girls of the school, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Irish.

Next meeting to be on the 20th of June at "Ivydale," the home of Mrs. Richards.

Appin

Miss Miers of Walpole Island visited her brother, F. H. Miers of the Royal Bank.

Miss Jean May spent a few days visiting friends in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Miers are taking their holidays and Mr. Ferguson of Glencoe is relieving Mr. Miers at the Royal Bank.

Miss Della McIntyre and Mrs. John Walker of Alvinston spent some time last week with friends in Detroit.

The sixty-second anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Munroe took place on Tuesday, the 5th instant. Both are quite hale and hearty.

The drilling rig has moved onto the farm of D. C. McTavish. This is the third in operation in this district.

Pumping is in full swing at the Second and Douglas wells, and quite a number of teams are drawing the oil to North Glencoe.

All mothers can put away anxiety regarding their suffering children when they have Mother Graves' Worm Expeller to give relief. Its effects are sure and lasting.

S. S. NO. 9, MOSA.

The Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. D. J. Mitchell on Thursday, May 31st, and packed a box of soldiers' supplies to be sent to Hyman Hall, London. The box contained thirteen day shirts, twenty pairs of socks and some old cotton. Total value, $83.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston and son Eldon visited at Mac McLean's Saturday.

Frank Carman of Los Angeles, Cal., visited the oil fields on Friday last. Success to Mr. Carman: may find more good wells.

Hugh B. McNeil of Detroit is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Everybody remember the lawn social to be held on the S. S. No. 9 school grounds. A good program is being provided. The main feature of the evening will be the auctioning off of an autograph quilt.

The next Red Cross meeting will be held at the home of Miss Minnie Corbett the last week in June.

Strathburn

Mr. and Mrs. Bateman of Ridgetown motored to Roy Siddall's on Sunday.

Bray Willey lost two valuable cows by poison and another is very sick. How they got the poison is a mystery.

The government motor plow passed through here from Appin to Daniel Snyder, and was quite a novelty, it being the first ever seen in these parts.

We understand it met with trouble there owing to the heavy rains having made sand soil too soft for its weight.

Miller's Worm Powders will eradicate the worm evil that bears so heavily on children and is believed to cause many fatalities. They are an acceptable machine to children and can be fully relied upon to clear the food channels thoroughly of these destructive parasites and restore the inflamed and painful surface to healthfulness. They are an excellent remedy for these evils.

THE LADY ON THE LINKS.

Enjoying a Game of Golf With the Wife of Your Friend.

She—Would you mind teeing up my ball? Thank you. Perhaps a little higher. John says I ought to have my tees lower, but somehow I never dare try. Shall I go? (She drives and goes about twenty feet.) How dreadful!

He (cheerfully)—That's nothing! One never expects to play for the first three holes. (He drives and goes about twenty-two feet.) You see!

She—Never mind. What club would you use here?

He—The grass is pretty long. I think under the conditions I should use an iron.

She (calmly taking out her brassie)—Yes, I suppose I should, but one can always go so much farther with a brassie. (She tops the ball, which goes about ten feet.) How dreadful!

He—Never mind. (Savagely driving his ball with his iron out of the grass nearly a hundred yards.)

She—Wonderful! John says you play such a consistent game.

He—The last time I played with John it cost me $10.

She—What? You don't play for money, do you? John says—

He—Oh, never! I broke four clubs. (At the end of the eighteenth hole her score is 108. He has a hole in 10.)

She—It was a awfully good of you to put up with me.

He—Good! The pleasure is mine. After all, it isn't your score that counts. It's the exercise.

She—Thank you so much. (Later to John.) He told me I played some simply wonderful shots, and said I was developing a great game. There!

He—Of course you are, dear. (Later to him.) Say, old man, how do you like lying to another man's wife instead of your own?

QUEER HUMAN NATURE.

How the Significance of Words May Change With the Years.

How the same word may have a different significance for the same man at different stages of his life is given in the following from the New York Post, as adapted and expanded from the French in the Paris Figaro:

Life.—At twenty: Days that are coming. At fifty: Days that are going.

The Heart.—At twenty: An organ whose frequent palpitations are due to indigestion. At fifty: An organ whose frequent palpitations are due to indigestion.

The Truth.—At twenty: Something to be doubted in the face of the whole world. At fifty: Something it is not always polite to tell.

Poetry.—At twenty: Something you read with eagerness and enthusiasm. At fifty: Something to quote.

Time.—At twenty: You imagine you never have enough of it. Therefore are always in a hurry. At fifty: You know you never have enough of it. Therefore never hurry.

A Muffler.—At twenty: A protection for one's dress shirt. At fifty: A protection for what is under one's dress shirt.

The Hair.—At twenty: You shake it back off your forehead. At fifty: Comb it carefully down across your forehead.

Key.—At twenty: A contrivance used to open things with. At fifty: A contrivance used to shut things with.

Wouldn't Need It.

Ethel was going to a party at a neighbor's house where she had already caught tantalizing glimpses of unlimited quantities of cake, fruit and ices. At the last mother inconsiderately held her back for dual instructions.

"Now, remember, darling, to say 'Yes, please,' and 'No, thank you.'"

"Oh, yes, mother," Ethel said. "I shall always say 'Yes, please,' but I don't think I shall have to say 'No, thank you.'"

Woman.

A woman may be a fool—a sleepy fox, an agitated fool, a too awfully noxious fool—and she may even be simply stupid. But she is never dense. She's never made of wood through and through, as some men are. There is in woman, always somewhere, a spring. Whatever men don't know about women (and it may be a lot or it may be very little), men and even fathers do know that much. And that is why so many men are afraid of them.—Courd.

What Nothing Is.

If any man thinks that he can conceive well enough how there should be nothing, I will engage that what he means by nothing is as much something as anything that he ever thought of in his life, and I believe that if he knew what nothing was it would be intuitively evident to him that it could not be. Absolute nothing is the aggregate of all the contradictions in the world.—Jonathan Edwards.

From General to Particular.

"Has Miss Oldgirl lost any of her animosity for man?"

"None at all. She has merely transferred it from the sex to the individual."

"What do you mean?"

"She is going to be married."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

A Puzzle.

"If you want to improve your mind," said the sage, "associate only with persons who know more than you do."

"But if they follow the same rule," said one of those who were learning wisdom at his feet, "what are we to do?"—Chicago Tribune.

Depends on the Point of View.

"Does your husband do foolish things with his money?"

"Well, I wouldn't say that. He gives it all to me."—Detroit Free Press.

One Sided.

Wife—I had a very interesting conversation this afternoon. Hub—Who was the listener?

A Contradiction.

"Mrs. Gaby is very unreliable."

"Yet I notice what she says goes!"

Certified.

Customer—Are those eggs fresh?

Clerk—They are positively impertinent.

Thinks She Is.

"Is Alice musical?" "No, but she always sings if you ask her."

Twins.

Crusty—I hear you have an addition to your family. Pater—Yes; put down one and carry two.

Rainless Lima.

People don't talk about the weather very much in Lima, because it never rains there.

Two Views.

She—Sir, take away your presence from me! He—All right. Hand 'em over.—Exchange.

Some One Ought to Pay For It.

"This show cost the producer $30,000." "I am glad of it."

Left.

Jack—I hear you had some money left you. Tom—Yes; it left me quite awhile ago.—Boston Transcript.

Opposites Meeting.

"How did he come to grief?" "He was a joy rider."

Peat.

The calorific value of peat freshly dug and untreated is estimated at one tenth that of coal.

Fine Distinction.

Black—I buy all of my wife's dresses. Brown—So do I, but I never pick them out.

Icebergs.

Icebergs sometimes last as long as 200 years before they melt entirely away.

His Pride.

"What's the matter with the waiter?" "I mistook him for a guest, and he didn't like it."

Dead Stars.

The dead stars probably outnumber the living stars by many, it may be millions, to one.

Experience.

Experience is a keen knife that hurts while it extracts the catarrh that blinds.—De Lined.

Balm of Gilead.

Balm of Gilead is costly, for the balm bush yields only a few drops a day in the tapping season.

Unpleasant Criticism.

Mrs. De Syrie (withdrawing picture)—You know, my daughter paints from nature. Critic—Far from it, it seems.

Artistic Cannibal.

That is a fearful people, the Chinese, who eat their cannibal long before they are civilized country.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicine—will Protect You

Autointoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the Kidneys and bring on Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema—and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Auto-intoxication or self-poisoning—as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

20c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
