

...2...

Mr. Kelleher stressed the importance of Canadian repairmen being able to service Canadian made machinery and equipment. "It is a serious problem because selling the goods today is only part of it, you have to install it, repair it and keep it in good working order", Minister Kelleher said. "I have expressed my concern to the U.S. Government and will continue to push for an early solution".

For further information contact:

Denis Comeau
Deputy Spokesman (International Trade)
Department of External Affairs
(613) 995-1877