

Why on "fussing" overmuch Do ye publish "pomes" and such 1910?

Should perchance the frenzy spread,
Filling each poor Freshie's head,—
What could then of you be said,

Oh, 1910?

So cease your pernicious mooning,
And if bent on private spooning Boast not yourselves in fussing lore,
For seniors have been there before,
As also many a sophomore!

Remember, 1910.

—A non.

1911 begs all those who are filled such a perverted idea of self-modesty as to dislike people who sing R. V. C. '11. their own praises, to read no further in this report.

We trust, however, that their curiosity will impel them to read one more sentence, for we wish to recall to their minds the fact that class pride is far different from personal conceit, and especially that class pride in a member of R. V. C. '11 is almost the one and only feeling which she cannot help possessing.

Having now dispatched with those who care not to hear of the recent deeds of glory performed by '11, we shall proceed to declare them to the interested. But first let us quote the words of a learned senior to a noble soph., "Why last year,

The Young Man who can say "McGILL!"

In after life, makes his fellows feel that he got the best possible educational start in life Likewise the young lady, the "co-ed." Just as McGill stands in the front rank, so does

The Slater Shoe

We want to show you "why"
and "how" the Slater Shoe costs less in the long run—or walk. There is a reason always—first as conclusive as the Q. E. D. in Euclid
