

4. That in the opinion of the Committee the Communion service should follow the Sabbath morning service; and that a meeting of the several Congregational Sabbath Schools be held at three o'clock in the afternoon, to be addressed by the Revs. J. McKillican, Dr. Wilkes, and J. Wood.

5. That on Monday evening the annual public meeting be held—the following being the topics and order of addresses: a resumé of proceedings by the Secretary; the Congregational College of B. N. A., by Prof. Cornish; Congregationalism in Great Britain, by Dr. Smith; Religion in Australia, by Rev. J. L. Poore; and the National Council of Congregational churches in the United States, by the Rev. E. Ebbs.

Brantford, April 17th, 1865.

JOHN WOOD,
Sec. Con. Union of Canada.

MEETING OF THE UNION IN TORONTO.

PASTORS of churches intending to be present at the meeting of the Congregational Union to be held in Toronto on the 7th of June next, are respectfully requested to forward their names, and the names of the delegate or delegates accompanying them, to the undersigned—NOT LATER THAN SATURDAY, THE 20TH MAY, in order that the required accommodation may be secured.

Ministers and Delegates, on their arrival in Toronto, will please at once report themselves at the office of the subscriber, where they will receive every information, and be furnished with cards of introduction to the families with whom accommodation may have been provided.

JAMES FRASER,
Toronto, April 27th, 1865. 5 King Street West.

CANADIAN CONGREGATIONAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

May I be permitted to crave the attention of all concerned to the following notices and suggestions?

1. A meeting of all the members of the Society at the time in Toronto is requested, and is hereby called, to be held in the Bond Street Congregational Church, at the close of Divine Service on Wednesday evening, June 7th, 1865, to appoint a committee to nominate the General Committee and officers for the ensuing year.

2. The Annual Meeting of the Society, which may continue by adjournments, is hereby called to assemble in the same place, on Thursday forenoon, June 8th, 1865, at eleven o'clock, or so soon after that hour as the Congregational Union may adjourn. The Annual Report will be presented and the general and local committees will be elected.

3. Although the present local committees are not wholly constituted on the principles laid down in the plan proposed by the Colonial Missionary Society, yet it would aid the General Committee and facilitate business if they would consider and report upon all applications to be made for pecuniary