

several opinions, and according to the Provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of this Island, made and passed in the Thirtieth year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for quieting the Minds of His Majesty's Dissenting Protestant Subjects in the Island of Saint John.