Ottawa, July 18th., 1916.

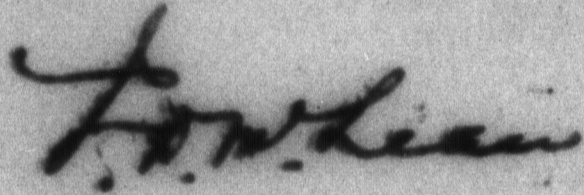

23-1.

Sir,-

Referring to your letter of the 4th instant relative to the young bull received in exchange for a heifer belonging to the Norway House Hospital, I beg to state that the Department approves of this animal being given to the Norway House Band, provided you consider the animal is fit for breeding purposes. Otherwise he should be killed next Winter for beef for the Hospital.

Kindly report what disposal will be made of the animal.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J. Jones Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Norway House, Man.
