As professes my esteem, tho' I have lost all hope of your Excellencies assembling our wish to hear no more of provincial affairs till I crossed the Atlantic. My contempt [illegible] is such that I cannot write on the subject without using naughty words : and when these would be unavailing . Any one goes out purely on business and is charged to hold as little conversation as possible about any concerns else I hope our Ministers will [illegible] such communication
He carries with him Three Chests of Tea protest against my imprisonment & banishment under cover to the Editors of the Herald & Advocate & Gleaner who may publish the same & thus if they choose to Had there ever been a head & heart but together in the Provincial Parliament : ment my case would have been duly considered & I, reconsidered the Mobile
