AN ESTATE FREE OF DEBT.

Many investors purchase real estate by means of instalments payable monthly or yearly: thus making absolute ownership possible in time.

In the event of death before the payments are completed, however, the estate is bequeathed encumbered with debt, and the heirs may not be able to continue the payments.

And it might easily result that the whole of the investment would be lost to the beneficiaries

Life insurance also constitutes an estate payable by instalments, but death ends the obligation to make payments and the estate is handed down intact.

Every man who has dependent relatives or friends should have a substantial portion of his investments in the form of life insurance, since the payment of the first premium creates for them an estate free of debt.
