Dublin, Sept. 4.—A woman has died of Dublin, Sept. 4.—A woman has died of injuries received in the charge of the military on Saturday. One soldier has been arrested. At the meeting of the Town Council the Lord Mayor stated he had abstained from enrolling special constables, as requested by the Lord-Lieutenant, because he did not think it was advisable to accept the services of strangers. He had since offered Spencer the services of tradespen of various localities, but reof tradesmen of various localities, but received the reply that the authorities themselves had obtained a sufficient number of special constables.

Dublin, Sept. 4.—An official Committee appointed to consider the claims of the police, met for the first time to-day. Two special constables have been sen-tenced—the one to six months' and the other to three months' imprisonment for other to three months' imprisonment for assaulting the military. It is stated the specials are very unpopular, both with the soldiers and police, and that the dismissed constables incited the mob to attack them. At the meeting of the corporation, the Lord Mayor said the special constables simply cause disturbance.

London, Sept. 5.—The corporation of Waterford has conferred upon Gray the freedom of the city.

Limerick, Sept. 5.—The parapet of the spirit warehouse next to the office reoccu-pied by Clifford Lloyd fell last evening, killing two men. The occurrence gave rise to the rumor that an attempt had been made to blow up Lloyd's house.

Dublin, Sept. 5.—The official report places the number of agrarian outrages in Ireland, during August, at 165, including one murder; 10 cases of intimidation, and 83 cases, sending threatening letters.

Dublin Sept. 5.—It is expected that 200 dismissed constables will be reinstated. Only the ringleaders are being excluded.

A special constable, sentenced to six months' imprisonment for assaulting the military, has been liberated on bail, pending an appeal to the Recorder's Court.

It is officially denied that the Irish police have returned to duty in consequence of any tacit understanding. They were informed they would be dismissed if they did not return to duty.

Dublin, Sept. 6.—Acting upon instruc-tions from the American Government, Meany, recently arrested at Ennis, has taken the most decisive course for the taken the most decisive course for the purpose of testing the legality of his arrest. He notified Purcell, the resident magistrate, that he surrenders his recognizance entered into August 11th. Meany says: "I no longer consider myself bound by the conditions of the obligation of recognizances. I cannot, as an American citizen, carry the stigma of a British bondsman unaccused and unconvicted of offences, or continue the confession of lawlessness that a continuance of my lawlessness that a continuance of my bonds would involve. I thus place myself in the position I occupied prior to the execution of my recognizances, but shall for thirty-six hours hold myself on parole for your action." London, Sept. 8.—Advices from Egypt state that the British troops are suffering to an alarming extent from the heat, which is insupportable. Several officers have been rendered insensible and fainted on the sand. Cases of dysentery are numerous, and the medical staff is taxed to the utmost.

Kassassin, Sept. 8.—Gen. Willis has arrived here and taken over the command from Graham. The enemy have occupied a village about 2½ miles south of our camp. A reconnoissance made yesterday in the vicinity of Tel-El-Kebir revealed to us the enemy's position from Karraim to Tel-El-Kebir to the extent of five or six miles. The strength of the enemy at both places is now pretty accurately known. tely known.

While the reconnoitering party was re turning after exchanging fire with the enemy to-day, a long train was observed coming up from the evening's camp, probably laden with troops, showing the enemy was ready to meet the English in advance. No measures have been taken to conceal the English movements from Law

MISS PARNELL TO BE BURIED IN BOSTON.

The body of Miss Fanny Parnell will be baried in Boston in the tomb of her mother's people. This is according to the wish of Mr. Parnell and other members of the family. The funeral in Boston will probably be of a quiet and private nature, avoiding everything like a political demon-stration. There will be, of course, proper representatives from the Land Leagues of the city. But the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Parnell have not yielded to the general desire that the body of the Land League poetess should be buried in Ireland, with a funeral that would be truly national, is sufficient to show that a public demonstration would not be in accordance with their wish. The transferring of the body will be under the direction of Mr. John J. Nolan, a leading undertaker, of Philadelphia. Mr. Thomas F. Doherty, President of the Central Branch of the Bos-ton Land League, has called a meeting for Wednesday evening next, to make arrangements for attending the funeral. - Boston the bed of the river on the up-stream side of the new canal works at Ste. Anne.

A plan, showing the position and section of the proposed channel and specifications of the work to be done, can be seen at this office, and at the office of the resident Engineer, at Ste. Anne. on and after FRIDAY, the Sth instant, where printed forms of tender can be obtained.

Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms and—in the case of firms—except there are attached the actual signatures, the nature of the occupation and residence of each member of the same; and, further, an accepted bank cheque for the sum of $1,000 must accompany the tender, which shall be forfeited, if the party tendering declines to enter into contract at the rates stated, in the offer submitted.

The cheque or money thus sent in will be returned to the respective person whose tenders are not accepted.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order, A. P. BRADLEY,
