Up-to-Date Farming.
The auto on the farm arose
Before the dawn at four:
It milked the cows and washed the clothes,
And finished every chore.

Then forth it went into the field
Just at the break of day,
It reaped and thrashed the golden yield
And hauled it all away.

It plowed the field that afternoon,
And when the job was through
It hummed a pleasant little tune
And churned the butter, too.

For while the farmer, peaceful eyed,
Read by the tungsten's glow,
The patient auto stood outside
And ran the dynamo.

A bishop without a diocese is called a suffragist.
In the houses of the poor the drains are in a fearful state, and quite unfit for human habitation.—Tit-Bits.

Wonderful.—"How well you are looking!"
"Yes. I am a vegetarian."

"Never Say Die."—Caddie (to golfer badly bunkered and opponent well on the green)—"Don't give up the hole sir. You never know, the other gentleman might have a fit."—Black and White.

Leap Year.—Maude—"I've something to tell you. I'm engaged to Jack."
Ethel—"I am not surprised. Jack never could say 'No.'—Boston Transcript.

On the Prince.—"When I was abroad, I was constantly taken for a certain crown prince whom I believe I resemble."
"I suppose you had to shell out some large tips."
"No, I let the prince get the reputation of being a piker."—Washington Herald.

What Might Have Been.—This was the first case for the majority of the jury, and they sat for hours arguing and disputing over it in the bare little room at the rear of the courtroom. At last they straggled back to their places, and the foreman, a lean, gaunt fellow, with a superlatively solemn ex-
