Canada to-day has a yearly trade in excess of one billion dollars, while hundreds of millions of dollars of British and foreign capital is pouring into the country for investment. The country's banking institutions, her mining companies, her investment houses, her transportation systems, her manufacturing industries, her insurance companies and commercial houses compare favorably with those of any other country in the world. While the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE naturally deals chiefly with matters of finance and commerce, its news columns are by no means confined to that class of information. The general news of the day is covered in a condensed form and our aim is to present the very latest news concerning all important affairs. Whatever may be the important event of the moment, in any part of the world, it is promptly reported by the JOURNAL'S staff of correspondents.
